Last Will & Testament of Isaac Hutton Esq. Do.
I Isaac Hutton Esq. of the County of White and State of Tennessee being in good health, mind and memory (mind) and memory: And knowing that is allotted for all men once to die, do make and publish this as my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all former Wills by me at any other time, hereby made First I order and direct that all of my just debts be paid out of my estate as soon after my death as convenient Second I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth Hutton during her natural life, or during her widowhood all the residue of my estate of every kind and description to be used and enjoyed by her, for her own support and and support so long as she shall remain my widow or live.

Thirdly At the death or marriage of my said wife Elizabeth, then I direct that all of my Estate both Real and personal, be sold to the highest bidder by my Executors hereinafter named; and the proceeds divided equally amongst my three Daughters (To wit) Susan S. D. Cane Sarah E. Clark and Eleanor W. Cotton so as to make their advancements from my estate up to Five hundred dollars ($500) each. My Son L. S. Hutton has a Bond showing the amount already advanced to each; and after my said Daughters advancements are made to that amount I will and direct that my Grand Son Leach W. Hutton the one eyed boy, shall have one hundred and fifty dollars out of my Estate. And I further direct that the Graves of myself and my beloved wife shall each be decently enclosed with stone. And the balance of my estate to be equally divided between my said three daughters, share and share alike, having herein before given to my Sons, all that I intend them to have.

Fourthly As soon as the incumbrance of my mother's Dower upon the Twenty nine acres of Land I own shall be removed, my beloved wife is fully authorized to sell said tract of Land and execute a warranted deed for the same and to make use of the purchased money, as she may see proper during her natural life, or widowhood as aforesaid.

and then the proceeds to descend to my daughters as before directed.

Fourthly My negro boy Robert being a truly servant, my will and desire is that he be permitted to choose his purchaser when to be sold.

Fifthly My will and desire is that my Family Bible, the life of George Washington and the life of Andrew Jackson should not be sold but shall remain and descend to my children and Grand children as long as they are and of the name.

Sixthly In said will should not be enough of my Estate left after the death of my beloved wife Elizabeth to make the advancements to my said three daughters up to five hundred dollars each. then it is my will and desire that my son Levi S. Hudson should advanced them enough to make up said amount to five hundred dollars each. Having heretofore contracted with him to do so.

Lastly I hereby nominate constitute and appoint George G. Daboll Executor to this my last will and Testament - witness my hand and seal this 16th day of May A.D. 1861. Isaac H. Hudson Seal

As life is uncertain and I fear being off sound mind
And memory make this my Last Will and Testament 1st I want all my just debts paid 2nd I give to my Son Robert England one hundred acres of land to be laid off of the first land off that is called the Deference tract of land and I go to include the place and house where said Robert now lives 3rd I direct the balance of my land divided into two tracts so as to divide the timbered and manulais as near equal as can be said for timber and waste for cash tract as near as possible and said one acre and two years one lot of my negroes I have three but also my negro and other property to be said as the same time by my executor 1/4th I direct that the proceeds of all my land and negroes and other property to be divided as follows I want England to have five dollars and Robert England to have the one hundred acres of land and 3rd that all the proceeds balance of the proceeds to be divided as follows between David S. England Elihu England John England Rebecca Arnet

James Dildine's Will.

I James Dildine, of the County of White, and State of Tennessee, being in bad health, but in sound and proper mind, knowing the certainty of Death, and the uncertainty do make this instrument of writing my last Will and Testament revoking all former Wills by me made (to wit) I bequeath to my Daughter, ~~the~~ Mary Buckhinge Wife of S. N. Buckhinge; the Tract of land that I purchased of G. H. Walker at fifteen hundred dollars her life time, and at her death to her bodily heirs, and to Elizabeth Loff the Tract of land on which I now live, provided she debar her Mother the privilege of living with her or on the above named land, and if she violates the above restriction then it to be sold, and divided between the rest of my heirs that is to Mary Buckhinge, one half, and the rest to the three youngest heirs of Mary Luchings and one heir of the supposed Mary Alexander, of my Son Druman,

Also to Elizabeth Loff, money enough to purchase a Common Good Horse, and bed and furniture for the same, also one Cow and calf, and all the Hogs she claims.

I bequeath to Mary Dildine formerly Mary Buckhinge ten dollars in Cash, also to her three eldest Children, George, Aaron and Robert ten dollars each in Cash, and to the three youngest Children of Mary Luchings, and the one heir of Mary Alexander, the supposed heir of my Son Druman, fifteen hundred dollars between them, that is the youngest equal with the eldest.

All the remainder of my property I desire sold at public sale and the residue of my effects, after paying all just claims and expenses, to be equally divided between Mary Buckhinge Wife of S. N. Buckhinge, and the four heirs above named, of Mary Alexander and Mary Luchings, that is Mary Buckhinge and half, and the remainder to the other four. I also desire that James M. Baker be my Executor with full power to wind up and settle all my business in general This 10th day of May, 1864.

John England's last will and testament

I John England being of sound mind and memory make this my last will and testament. I want all my just debts paid. I will to my son Robert England one hundred acres of land to be laid off of the west end of what is called the Lyons tract of land in so as to include the place my house where said Robert now lives. I will the balance of my land divided in two tracts so as to divide the timber and mountain land as near equal so as to suit for timber and water for each tract as near possible and sold on one and two years credit if my Executors should think best. Also my Cows and other property to be sold on the same time by my Executors.

I will that the proceeds of all my land negroes and other property to be divided as follows. 1st. Sarah England to have five dollars only. Robert England to have the one hundred acres of land only. 5th. All the balance of the proceeds to be divided as follows between David S. England, Elijah England, John England, Rebecca Austin, Wm. William Walker, Margaret Lancer, Mary Jane Williams and Francis England but it is expressly directed that all such part of my estate as I will to my daughters is given to them for their sole and separate use and after their death to the heirs of their body.

Except Francis Austin who is only to have out of her mother's part of my estate five dollars after the death of Rebecca Austin her mother.

6th The William Walker mentioned in the 5th clause of this will is the son of my daughter Walker who is dead and under this will I intend for him to have four hundred dollars out of my estate. 7th The land heretofore given by me to Elijah England and John England and the one thousand dollars given them in the John Hill Land is not to be charged to them in the settlement of my estate under this will. 8th I hereby nominate and appoint my son David S. England and Elijah England my sole Executors to this my last will and testament. As witness my hand and seal this 13th day of August 1864.

John Sullivan's Will

I John Sullivan do make and publish this as my last will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made. First I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid out of as soon after my death as possible out of any moneys I may die possessed of or may just come into the hands of executor hereafter. I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Sullivan my land on which I now live containing two hundred and thirty two acres and thirty nine square poles
