Report of a settlement made by the clerk of White County Court with William Dods guardian of the minor heirs of Arthur Leavitt dec'd on the 1 day of January 1867 viz

The guardian was appointed on the 4 day of December 1865 and reports that nothing has come to his hands except the rents of the lands, which amounts of about two hundred bushels of corn, and three hundred and fifty bushels of oats - that it is necessary to keep some oats and corn for the support of his Wm. The balance of the property consists only of such property as the Wm was entitled to - there were no debts, owing by or to the deceased; the guardian has paid the clerk, for, for this settlement, according to the sum & order of confirmation $1.66. all of which is respectfully submitted.

The guardian reports that he has in his hands as effects of his names estate $500 of Confederate money he says he took the money unwillingly, but was afraid to absolutely refuse it. He respectfully asks the Court to relieve him of any responsibility connected with the taking of said money, or otherwise to instruct him whether or not he should endeavor to collect good money from those who have received the Confederate money. He would also say to the Court that his name was of no account in mind about the 1st of June last. All of which is respectfully submitted to the Worshipful Court for Confirmation.

There is yet in the hands of the admr. a note on Williams Bellberry for $60. One note on E. M. Cook for $100 Silas Ramsey for $65. Neither of whom can be found. Bellberry's note has a credit of $40. Henry made an affidavit that he was entitled to a credit for $65 to which I allowed him, and John Campbell and W. H. Cameron agree that the account against him was only $65 instead of $75. Which he erroneously returned in his inventory as the amount he was owing. If the admr. should find and collect off Bellberry, Cook and Ramsey the debts they are owing he will account for them hereafter.
