Last Will & Testament of A. W. Bronson

I, Stephen W. Bronson of the County of White and State of Pennsylvania make and publish, this my last Will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other Wills, by me at any time made, that is to say, that I desire that all my just debts be paid, as soon after my death as possible, including my funeral expenses.

I do hereby settle upon my son Lucas Bronson the sum of Ten Thousand dollars, to be paid to him out of the final monies that may come into the hands of my executors hereinafter named, for the following uses and trusts, that is to say, The interest on the said sum of Ten Thousand dollars is to be paid Annually, to my Wife Jane Bronson during her life & widowhood, for her comfortable support and maintenance, and at her death I desire and hereby bequeath the said sum of Ten Thousand dollars, together with the residue of my Estate of every kind and description, share and share alike, to my eight Children, to-wit: Western Ann Edmonds, Wife of W. S. Edmonds, Emily Birchard, Wife of Amos Birchard, Sarah Powers, Wife of Jacob H. Powers, Lucas Bronson, George Egbert Bronson, Charles Bronson, Dwight Bronson & Elsie Merick Bronson. I direct also that all the property real and personal, which goes to my daughters under this Will be vested in a trust for the sole and separate uses of my said daughters and their Children, free from the Control or Management of any and every husband they may have at any time, my intention being to vest my daughters with a separate estate, in as full and ample a manner as if they were single Women, and my intention being to cut off completely and forever the marital or any other rights, their husbands might otherwise have to the same; and I hereby appoint my son Lucas Bronson Trustee to carry into effect the preceding provisions in relation to my Daughters. He is directed to hold the property for their benefit and use, and to apply it to their benefits under their direction; but in no event,

The property to be disposed of, so as to come under the dominion and control of their said husbands.

I am now more than seventy years of age, and to some extent incapable from physical infirmities, of managing my estate with proper vigilance to take care of and secure the same. I therefore make, constitute and appoint my son Silas Bronson, my agent and trustee to take charge of my estate, of every kind and description which may be due me, from my brother Silas Bronson, estate, who lately died in the State and City of New York, or of any other property or moneys which may come to me from any source whatever, I authorize and empower my said trustee, to take charge and control all my estate as aforesaid, and manage it for my sole use and benefit, and under my direction and approval, during my life. He must see that it is managed so as to secure my ease and comfort during my life, and at my death he is charged to see that my estate be managed according to the foregoing bequests. I authorize and empower him to proceed at once to collect from the representatives of my late brother Silas Bronson, or from any other persons who may hold moneys which may be due me, and to receipt for the same and I hereby ratify all lawful and useful acts as such, in as full and ample manner as if I were present and doing the same myself. I hereby nominate and appoint my son Silas Bronson, my son Ely Merie Bronson, John A. Albee and James A. Garvenhine the executors of this my last will and testament, dated this 8th day of January, Eighteen hundred and fifty-eight.
