Last Will and Testament of L. W. Scott Decd
 In the name of God amen, I L. W. Scott of the County of White and State of Tennessee, Being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make ordain and publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament that is to say, first after all my lawful debts are paid and discharged the residue of my estate real and personal, I give and bequeath and dispose of as follows (to wit) To my beloved wife the land and appurtenances situated throug Union and described as follows to wit the farm on which I now live, Beginning at a small Oakum tree standing on the East boundary line of a tract of land belonging to Bryce Little said Little Coal Bank tract for particular description see deed to the same, which shews to have until her death and after her death all the land and appurtenances throug described above is to be equally divided between my three children now living, Harriett, Philip W. and Margaret Scott share and share alike and they are to pay over to William Little's children William and Mary and James Little my Grand Children One hundred dollars each, to keep in and make Constitute and appoint my Daughter Harriett Scott and John B. Duncan to be Executors &c of this my last Will and Testament. I hereby revoke all former Will by me made, In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my Seal this the 8th day of February 1869

L. W. Scott (Seal)

The above written Instrument was subscribed by the L. W. Scott in our presence and acknowledged by him to each of us, and he at the same time published and declared the same to be his last Will and Testament and we at the testator's request have signed our names as witnesses

 Susan Duncan,

State of Tennessee County Court March Term 1870
 White County, Tenn

This day a paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Laramus W. Scott a citizen of White County, was produced in open Court and the due execution and publication thereof as such was proven by the oath of John B. Duncan and Susan Duncan the subscribing witnesses thereto, and the said witnesses further prove that the testator at the time of signing the same, was of sound mind and disposing memory, and the said Will being deemed by the Court sufficiently proven is Ordered to be recorded and certified, and the said John B. Duncan one of the Executors named in said Will being present in open Court refused to take upon himself the Execution of said Will, Whereupon Harriett Scott the other Executor named in said Will personally appeared in open Court, and took the oath prescribed by law, and together with John B. Duncan Thomas Pope and W. C. Hixson entered into bond in the sum of Six hundred dollars conditioned as the requisite and approved of by the Court, ordered that
