I have assumed the Guardian for his services. Fifty Dollars, which I think reasonable. This Settlement does not show any allowance to the Guardian or for the Clerk for this Settlement's Order confirming and recording. From the fact the Guardian and Ward mutually agreeing that they would settle that as per between themselves, the Ward being of age and married. The Clerk is hereby given payment of his fee from the Ward out of which is respectfully and truthfully declared in confirmation. William M. Rogers, Clerk.

Copy of Receipt.

Received of Thomas Jones Guardian of Mifflin (formerly Mifflin Green) Seven Dollars and Fifty Cents and Eight, Three Cents, Sept. 18, 1878. John M. Stays, Test. William M. Rogers, Mifflin, Mo.

Report of a Settlement made by the Clerk of White County Court with George W. Yates, Guardian of Mifflin (formerly Mifflin Green) and Susan Yates, his wife, on the 2 day of November, 1878, as follows, viz:

To and of means that come in, from and to the day of March 1879, as directed by the Court. To Interest on same to date. Amt in Ward out of which is $2.00

The Guardian states that he has at present no knowledge of the funds that came in his hands in the hands of the Ward, and consequently has no receipt to be made and charges nothing in his services. He is prepared to be sworn to by a grand jury, between that and the Ward, all of which is respectfully submitted for confirmation.
