Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Anderson In the name of her Amended Elizabeth Anderson of the County of White and State of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life do therefore, make ordain publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament that is to say, first after all my lawful debts are paid and discharged the residue of my personal estate, I give bequeath and dispose of as follows, to wit, I give of all give to my daughter Sarah E. Anderson Two beds and two bed ticks and twelve bed quilts and six new bed sheets and three new bed blankets and three new counterpane and two new rather worse, and two bolsters, and four pillows, and seven good chairs One common table, and three common table And two pillow slips, and one new meal sack and spinning wheel, and one Brauer and one looking glass, one good set and one common set of plates, and two straw bed ticks, and two bed cords, and one good cow, and six head of sheep I make the above bequest to my daughter Sarah E. Anderson because I have given the above named articles heretofore to my daughter M. M. Stewart so making them equal, and after the above bequest is laid off to my daughter Sarah E. Anderson my Will is that the remainder of my Estate be equally divided between my two Daughters M. M. Stewart and Sarah E. Anderson so as to make them equal either by dividing of all the property or by selling the same on twelve months credit for money and dividing the proceeds thereof, equally between them in witness whereof I do subscribe my name and affix my Seal this eighth day of June one

Last Will and Testament of Charles T. Bosson

Trusting in the love and mercy of God my Creator, and in his providence that during a long life has dealt mercifully and kindly by me, I do now make this my last Will and Testament in regard to the disposal of such property real and personal, both by possession or by claim belonging to me at my decease, to wit: I give and bequeath to my son James B. Bosson all my real property to his use and benefit forever, with the following reservation in behalf and for the benefit of my niece Mary B. Hill and Berendine McNeill to whom in consideration of their unremitting affection and care of my said son James B. Bosson from his infancy, or hither to, I give and bequeath to my said nieces a moiety of my said real property to their use during their natural lives, the remainder over to my said son James B. Bosson forever.

I also give and bequeath all my personal property claims, interest, and due to me, to my said son James B. Bosson and to my said nieces Mary B. Hill and Berendine McNeill for their joint and several use.

I request my Brother William Bosson and my nephew William B. Hill to be my Executors to fulfill the intentions and objects of this my last Will, and hereby constitute them as such, feeling full confidence, that they will as they have always hitherto done, render to my said son James B. Bosson and to my said nieces Mary B. Hill and Berendine McNeill all assistance, and affectionate attention and care their joint and several interests and conditions may require. Signed & declared in presence of James B. Bosson, William B. Hill, and Berendine McNeill, and acknowledged before me by James B. Bosson, William B. Hill, and Berendine McNeill, this 24th day of June 1868.

Last Will and Testament of Henry Sanders In the name of God, Amen, I Henry Sanders of the County of White and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do hereby make, ordain and publish these declarations to wit: my last Will and Testament, that is to say, first after all my lawful debts are paid and discharged the residue of my Estate real and personal I give bequeath and dispose of as follows to wit: to my daughter Elizabeth and Esther the lands and appurtenances situated thereon, known and described as follows to wit, lying in the County of White and State of Tennessee, Beginning on a corner where there being a blue oak and sugar tree running thence North four hundred and twenty five feet and twenty two poles across the corner to a white oak and poplar, thence East thirty four poles to a black oak and Hickory, thence South Eastwardly on a diagonal line between said Henry Sanders and the farm of that Thomas Mc Lane now living upon a cleared and open road, thence South Eastwardly on the various lines of a fifty acre survey purchased from Thomas Little &c including the same &c. Beginning to be equally divided between them as the same are agreed upon and Bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth all my right title and interest I have in Carding Machine and lat, and all town property real and personal, I make Constituted and appointed my Grandson Henry Ogden and Francis Probate of Will

This day a paper written purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Henry Sanders late of the County of White and State of Tennessee deceased was produced in open court and in due execution and publication thereof was sworn by James Mc Lane and James W. Hunter the Subscribers, and in presence of the witnesses who proved that at the time of signing said Will the testator was of sound mind and disposing mind and memory, and said Will being deemed by the Court sufficiently proven in order to be recorded and certified. And it appearing to the Court that Francis Marion Hise aided Henry Ogden the late executor named in said Will refuse to take upon themselves the Execution of said Will. Thereupon the Court appointed Esther Ogden Administratrix with the Will annexed who being present in open Court took the Oath prescribed by law and together with H. W. Hunter and J. W. Hunter entered into and taken and charged Bond in the sum of Five Hundred dollars conditioned as the law requires and approved of by the Court ordered that the said

Last Will and Testament of S. R. Glens June 11th 1868

I Samuel R. Glens of the County of White and State of Tennessee being duly in possession of my mind and being of sound and disposing mind, I do now and ordain this my last Will and Testament, in the name of God Amen, I give and commit my soul to God whosoever it, and my body to be buried in a decent and Christianlike manner.

Article first. I will and bequeath all my personal property or a sufficient amount of the same into the hands of my Executor, to pay all my just debts and to defray my funeral expenses, I allow her the privilege of selling it privately or publicly or on a credit of twelve months or for Cash in hand as he may think best.

Article second. I will and bequeath the remainder of my entire effect both Real and personal to my late wife Mary Ann during her natural life or widowhood to have at her full control.

Article third. I also empower it upon her to give my four children Margaret Jane, Thomas Alexander Susan and Sally Ann, a good and liberal education.

Article fourth. At her death or marriage, I will my personal property to be sold on a credit of twelve months and to be equally distributed between my four above named children.

Article fifth. I will and bequeath my real Estate to my only son Thomas Alexander, but require him to pay the three above named girls, one half the value of the same, after it comes into his hands

Article Sixth, And I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife Mary Ann my executrix of this my last will and testament, without being required to qualify or enter into bond with me or to take out letters of administration, and I appoint Alexander Jarvis her assistant, given under my hand and seal on this the day and date above written

Samuel R. Glenn (Seal)

Witnesses
John H. Glenn
O. W. Glenn

Article 7th In addition to said will Mary is made equal with the rest of the girls.

Article 8th If it should become necessary that the land should be sold to pay my debts that Mary Ann my beloved wife have a power on the East end of the land

Samuel R. Glenn (Seal)

Witnesses
Alexander Jarvis
Susan Jarvis

This day a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Samuel R. Glenn late a citizen of White County deceased was produced in open Court, and the due execution and publication thereof was proved by John H. Glenn and O. W. Glenn the subscribing witnesses thereto who swore that at the time of signing said will the testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory and the Codicil thereto was also proved in open Court by Alexander Jarvis and Susan Jarvis the two subscribing witnesses thereto who also proved that at the time of signing said Codicil the testator was of sound mind and disposing memory. And said Will and the Codicil thereto being deemed by the Court sufficiently proved is ordered to be recorded & certified. And it appearing to the Court that Mary Ann Glenn the the executrix in the will refused to take upon her the execution of said will and also came into Court and desired to said will to keep the Court appointed Alexander Jarvis Administrator with the will annexed who being sworn in open Court to take the oath required by law and together with O. W. Glenn & John Jarvis entered into bond in the sum of $1000 to take care of the estate of said deceased.
