The Last Will and Testament of Fredell Stone,

Considering the uncertainty of mortal life, and being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say, I first give and bequeath to my youngest son, Taylor Stone, and also to my youngest daughter, Lucy A. Cash, all my landed estate, lying on the waters of Cherry Creek, and in White County, and State of Tennessee, lying at the foot of the Mountain in Lewis District No. 9, which I want equally divided between the two heirs, Taylor Stone and Lucy A. Cash, said Cash is to have possession of the spring and fence where he now lives, and also to have full acc't to timber and fire wood, and also Taylor Stone is to have possession of the house and spring where the said Fredell Stone now lives, and the said divided estate and wife are to be maintained out of the land while they live, at the death of the said Stone and wife, the land and property to go to Taylor Stone and Lucy A. Cash, I also bequeath out of my personal property to my oldest son, Samuel B. Stone, Ten Dollars; George Tom, Walter Tom, Mary Cammons, and also and William Stone, my two younger sons 20 Dollars apiece. Cash is to have privilege in the wood land, that is fenced up the hollow. When said land is divided, to be done as much to the interest of one as the other, and to suit the convenience of both, and also appoint John Simpson Cash, my Sole Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made. In witness whereof, I have set my hand and seal, this 10th day of July, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty.

Attest, Mrs. R. R. Rungis

Ann Collins, Mill.

Ann Collins of the County of White, and State of Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and desiring to mind the uncertainty of life, do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all other Wills by me at any time heretofore made, 1st. My Will and desire is that Better and Polka Collins shall each have their Beds, Bedclothing, Steads and appurtenances thereto, they having made the same themselves and on their own private property, and does not belong to my estate.

2d. My Will and desire is that my Executors herein after named, shall as soon after my death as practicable, take charge of all of my estate, both real and personal, and sell the same to the highest bidder and apply the same, first to the payment of all of my burial expenses, and then to the debts that I may justly owe, and upon the payment of the purchase money for my house and lot in Sparta, and my Mountain tract of Land, where my Aunt Mary A. Austin formerly lived adjoining the Land of Mr. R. Stewart and others. My Executors herein after named is hereby fully authorized and empowered to execute a deed to the purchaser for the same. If my Executor shall deem it best, he may by and with the advice of all of my Creditors, sell said real estate, either at public or private sale, and execute deeds to the purchaser.

3d. I hereby constitute and appoint George J. Dineen and S. B. Bates Executors to this my Last Will and Testament, Mitd by my hand and seal, this 11th day of November, A. D. 1880.

Ann Collins, Test.

80 Ails Signed, sealed and acknowledged in our presence and the presence of each of us, this Nov. 11th, 1880.

W. L. Mitchell's Will

I, W. L. Mitchell do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all others by me made at any time.

First, I desire that my funeral expenses shall be paid together with all my just debts, as soon after my death as possible out of any monies that I may die possessed of, or may just come into the hands of my Executor.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, all of the property I may be possessed of that is exempt by law, I further bequeath to my wife Sarah Ann, all of my tract of land whereon I now live, containing One Hundred and Eighty Eight Acres, during her natural life, and after her death, I desire said land be divided equal between my children that are living at the time, and if none are living, I desire that said land be sold, and the proceeds divided equally between my grand children, I share and share alike, the above mentioned land was sold and bid off in the name of S. L. Mitchell by me and I have paid the purchase price out of my own money, I did this on account of having a judgment hanging over me as security that I did not want to pay, this said S. L. Mitchell never having paid on said tract of the purchase price.

Lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint Mr. C. D. Dyer, my Executor. In testimony whereof, I have set my hand, this 5th day of December, A. D. 1879.

Mitchell has died, leaving a Will, in which you are appointed Executor which has been duly proved in open Court, and you having given bond, and qualified according to law, and it being ordered that Letters Testamentary be issued to you, There are therefore imposed upon you to enter upon the execution of said Will, and to take into your possession, all the property of the estate of W. L. Mitchell, duly and make a true Inventory thereof, and return the same to the next term of the County Court, and make collection of all debts due said estate and after paying all just and lawful demands upon the estate and settling up said estate according to law you will pay over and deliver all property and effects that may remain in your hands, according to the directions of the Will and the laws of the State. Witness my hand at office, this 7th day of March, 1881.

By, William H. Henshaw,

State of Tennessee
White County, } County Court, Oct. Term, 1881.

To G. H. Dittus & W. Clerk, Citizens of White County, It appearing to the satisfaction of the County Court of said County, that James Scott has died leaving a Will in which you are appointed Executors, which has been duly proven in open Court, and you having given bonds, and qualified according to law, and it being ordered that Letters Testamentary be issued to you,

These are therefore to empower you to enter upon the execution of said Will, and to take into your possession all the property of the estate of James Scott, decd., and make a true Inventory thereof, and return the same to the next term of the County Court, and make Collection of all debts due said estate, and after paying all just and lawful demands upon the estate, and settling up said estate according to law, you will pay over and deliver
