The admr. states that he enforced the vendors lien for the estate at $225.00 and now holds the same at ask price. He settled the balance due by taking $150.00 cash and Phillips' 3 Notes in the sum of $250.00 each due in 1, 2 & 3 years from May 12, 1890, with Litchford as dts with E. A. Freeman as his security being the best settlement he could get of the matter. He also brought suit on the A. A. Richardson Note before E. A.

Breeding but only recorded Judgment for $112.00 which is insolvent. He accepted only $25.00 on this note and will be entitled in his final settlement to a credit of $110.00 on this matter unless he succeeds in making further collections which is not probable.
