Pursuant to an order law directed from the worshipful Court of Wm County at their July session 1817, we have proceeded to examine the accounts of the said Henry Cook guardian of the said John Robinson's estate, and find that there is due to Henry Cook the sum of one hundred and thirty three dollars and seventy three cents and one half cent as per above statement and that the said Sala N. Sharp is indebted to Henry Cook for four hundred thirty four dollars and 58 3/100 in account of the difference of value of the lot of land allotted them by the Commissioners appointed by the Court for that purpose, and that the said Sala is also indebted to Henry D. Sharp, four hundred thirty three dollars 82 3/100 for the difference in value of the lot of land, allotted to them by the Commissioners appointed by the Court for that purpose 11 Sept. 1817. To the above balance is to be added two dollars thirty cents for allowance to Henry Cook

Pursuant to an order from the Court of the County of Millersburg, given at their Term of July & quarter session, April 1817 concerning John Portlock, Nicholas Seals, Joseph H. Seals, Edward M. Seals & Alexander Johnson to divide the premises of the tract of land belonging to James Berry dec^d, on which he lived immediately before his death among his heirs (his widow Rebecca Berry having had her dower previously laid off of said tract) M. John Portlock, Nicholas Seals & Alexander Johnson having consented on the premises, on the 12th day of June 1817, and finding that the order of Court above named authorized any three of the five Commissioners in the premises, have proceeded to survey and divide the tract of land alluded to in the order as follows to wit:

Beginning for the survey of the whole residue of the tract at a walnut, in which Richard Redden, who purchased of Basil Berry corner, and running south with Redden's line, twenty four poles to a stake, thence north again with Redden's line, one hundred thirty nine poles to two pointed oaks in the north boundary line of the original survey, which was divided by Thomas Berry to his three sons, William, James and Basil Berry, thence north with said boundary line two hundred & thirty four poles to a white oak, thence north corner of the original survey, thence east one hundred & thirty poles to a sugar tree, thence south eighty four poles to a stake in an old and in Hanforth river, thence east fifty four poles to a Lyons, the north west corner of the meadow's corner, thence south with Rebecca Berry's corner line one hundred & twenty eight poles to a sugar tree, thence east four poles to the beginning, and contains two hundred and fifty eight acres & one half acre. We then after measuring the equal in value, as near as circumstances would allow, and having after such an allotment, placed the names of the five legal heirs, Mary Matherall, William Berry, Robert Berry, James Berry & Thomas Berry on strips of paper in one hat and the 5th of the several lots, hereafter designated and numbered on this find strips of paper in another, and one of each finally drawn by a boy under ten years old, we do report the division, & the several parts of said tract as follows, which will accurately appear on the original file, viz:

First Lot No. 1, drawn for Thomas Berry, beginning at a small sugar tree the north west corner of Rebecca Berry's corner and running east then north to the beginning corner of the tract, thence south thence back poles to a stake Richard Redden's corner thence north with the boundary of the tract fifty eight poles, then east, thence north, one hundred and fifty two poles to a stake in an island a corner of the survey thence east to a Lyons, Rebecca Berry's corner, thence south to the beginning
