Attached to which last will & testament was a codicil in the following words and figures for it. A. Memorandum,

David Davis due me in my account One hundred and twenty dollars and another Account One hundred Dollars, also for bond Parley, which is not settled which money I wish to go to pay D. P. Burns as far as it goes Thomas Miller due me two hundred Dollars which I intend to pay on bonds debt. I wish my wife Joannah Miller provided for as my will directs I have given my son Thomas and Joseph and my daughter Joannah specified legacies in my will and after taking out their legacies and paying my debts the balance of my estate I wish equally divided amongst them all except the property mentioned in my will for my wife Joannah and eight head of cattle which my son John is entitled to after the death of his Mother, there is also some Credit he is entitled to on my day book and some debt against him he is to account for I also wish the property and money which fall to my son John in a division of my estate to remain in the hands of his Mother during her life, I also wish the property I give my daughter Joannah to go down with what she may get at the division of my estate to remain in the hands of her Mother during her life & she to have it in her power to leave it in the hands of some friend for Joannah benefit my reason for this is I do not wish or desire Mr. David Leonard to have any part of my estate & further wish my wife Joannah Miller to be executors to my will and William Miller and Thomas Miller executors to my will and in this form to lay off the estate and divide it and pay the debts as they may think proper this being done the fourth of August eighteen hundred and twenty one.
