ANDREW CAMPBELL

2^d Amendment of Inventory April 29th 1820

The date of Andrew Campbell's death April 29th 1820.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that Jane A. Campbell administrator of Andrew Campbell died in returning an Inventory of said Andrew Campbell's estate had made a mistake in returning two hundred and six thirty seven shares of Stock held in the Branch Bank of the State of Tennessee at Knoxville in each of which shares thirty dollars were stated to have been paid and of no share in the Principal Bank at Knoxville on which fifty dollars were stated to have been paid and in the whole had returned two hundred and twenty five shares whereas these really belonged at the time of the said Andrew Campbell death at the Principal Bank at Knoxville only one hundred and thirty seven shares and none at the said Branch Bank at Knoxville. Wherefore it is ordered that said Inventory be amended and that said Jane A. Campbell administrator as aforesaid stand charged with one hundred and thirty seven shares of Stock held at the said Principal Bank at Knoxville in each of which fifty dollars were paid at the time of said Andrew Campbell's death instead of said three hundred and twenty five shares so stated to have been returned by her as aforesaid.
