The Commissioners appointed to divide the Negroes belonging to the estate of the Estate of Samuel Clark do make report of their proceedings which is ordered to be Recorded.

Robert M. Lemore Dies Will April Term 1823

In the name of God Amen. I Robert M. Lemore of the County of Williamson and State of Tennessee do on this fourteenth day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty two, make certain and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say. In the first place I desire that my body shall be buried in a decent Christian like manner at the direction of my executors. With regards to my lands my will and desire is that my beloved wife Peggy if she remain unmarried shall have and possess the tract of land I live on containing about two hundred and twenty five acres together with the piece I have adjoining Porters and others containing about forty acres until my youngest son Robert M. McIlwaine shall attain his age of twenty one years. But should my said wife marry or my said son Robert M. attain his age of twenty one years then in either case, she is to have the dwelling house and all out houses attached or necessary thereto, and the forty acres adjoining Porters together with so much of the tract of land I live on as to make her share amount to one half in quantity of the whole. The tract I live on to be divided by a line beginning along the line south of the house on Melader & Perkins line and running west to the western boundary of the land which said land so given shall be and enure to her during her natural life, and upon her natural death my will and desire is that the whole of the said two tracts shall belong to my said son Robert M. and his heirs forever. Should my said wife marry or die before my said son Robert shall attain his age of twenty one years and before the final division of the personal property amongst my four youngest children as herein after mentioned then upon her death or before her marriage the half of said lands is to be subjected to the raising my family in the manner herein after mentioned, and after such division then so much of the land as my said wife will not be entitled to shall enure to the use of my said son Robert M. and his heirs forever, and should my said son Robert M. attain his age of twenty one years and my said wife still remain unmarried then my will is that the said lands shall be divided in the same manner as herein provided for in case of her marriage that is one half to her the other half to my son Robert M. I have two tracts of land lying on the north side of the river

If you and bequeath to my son Athias I will want the tract of land he lives on with so much of the other to be laid off at the northern extremity of the tract as will make his share amount to five acres more or less than the remainder of the large tract in quantity, so that the tract he lives on as well as the other by advertisement. It is my desire that the large tract be divided by beginning at a point in the eastern boundary line and running directly west to Thomas Chalkins, which said tract of land shall belong to said son Athias I. and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Athias I three negroes to wit, Nathan, Ephie now in his possession and Nelson, as also a bay horse called Bonster lately sold to Bob. Davis. The grey mare got by Thomas who has been and is desired, the white mare lately bought of Sumner, and the bay mare, consider fully three years old together with two small steers, a make oven and whatever articles of furniture he has already received, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son John B. McIlwaine the remainder of the large tract mentioned above his part being within to include the plantation and houses which I now have on said large tract, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my daughter Bethunia Adams (McIlwaine) five Negroes to wit, John, Ellen, and her child Albert, Martha and Anne for which I will the share of a third of my goods, also the bond fully payable three years old, this spring, one hundred and fifty dollars as my son Athias I. has already had with the balance I have mortgaged had made for her to be furnished with good clothing, one good cow - a beaver or twenty five dollars, a dining table or fifteen dollars, and the drapery table called her to her and her heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Peggy and our four children John B. McIlwaine, Polly (McIlwaine), Robert Mackley (McIlwaine) and Peggy Smith (McIlwaine) and their heirs forever twenty three negroes that is to say, Harry, Phil, Team, Grace, Sam, Balaam, Gals, William, Daniel, Isaac, Susan, Susan, Esther, Jane, Mary, Betty, Sidney, Rachel, Jackson, Mary, Susan, Austin and Charles, and it is my desire that the said negroes remain without being divided, as long as my wife shall remain unmarried, and until some of the said four children shall come of age, or marry, but should my said wife marry, or die, or have her portion divided from the said without marrying, then my desire is that the said negroes shall be so divided as to allow to my said wife and our two daughters Polly (McIlwaine) and Peggy I. each five shares in twenty two, to my son John B. three shares or twenty two, and to my son Robert M. four shares or twenty two and when such division is made then the parts allotted to the four children shall again fall into and become undivided, and shall so remain until my son John B. shall attain his age of twenty one years, or until my said daughter Polly (McIlwaine) shall attain her age of eighteen and marry, upon either of which events there shall be a division, allotting to each of said children the before stated proportions of said negroes. I also give to my said wife and our four children, all the household and kitchen furniture as many of the plantation tools as shall be thought by my executors necessary two the best yoke of oxen with two oxen and three her cows and calves or cows with calf, seven work horses, as much barn and corn as will support the family through the present year, and a full supply out of the growing crop of pork beef &c. as shall in the opinion of my executors be sufficient to furnish said family stock &c. with one year provisions from the first day of next January together with as many stock large sheep and young cattle for hay as my executors shall judge fair and proper to support and maintain the plantation as herein after mentioned. given to my son John D. shall be worked by the negroes to the best advantage and the profits made by the cultivation of them be applied in discrimination to the clothing supporting and educating my said wife and children, but if upon full consideration it shall be thought most advisable to rent out the plantation given to my son John D. and hire out part of the negroes as also to rent part of the home plantation, it is my will that it should be done so, and the profits arising from both planting and hiring to be applied to the clothing supporting and educating my said family as aforesaid, all of which said regulations are to cease when my son John D. attains his age of twenty one years, or my daughter Polly M. shall attain her age of eighteen years and marry, in either of which cases the said negroes are to be divided and let apart in severalty, as well to my said wife (if she has not before had a division) as to our said four children, in the proportions herein before stated, it is also my will that the property other than negroes having given to my said wife and four children shall be divided amongst them in the same proportions that the negroes are except the profits of the land and negroes (other than the natural increase of said negroes) which are to be applied to educating boarding and clothing my said family at the discretion of my said executors without regard to the previous sum expended on each, and when the division takes place the balance of profits if any there be is to be equally divided amongst my said wife and four children, or my said four children as the case may be. It being my intention that whenever the final division of the personal property takes place my son John is to take the absolute possession of the tract of land hereby given to him, and if any of the contingencies upon which a division is to take place shall happen in my said wife remaining single, then my will is that so many of the children as shall be under age and single, shall continue to live with their mother in the same way hitherto directed; and if my said wife should during the infancy of any of my said children marry I desire that my executors and in default of them the Guardians of my children shall in all things regulate the management of the estate as nearly in conformity with the foregoing directions as is compatible with the change of circumstances. It is my special desire that my four youngest children be educated as well as the yearly income of the estate will justify, my two daughters in all the useful branches commonly taught for slaves, and my two sons in all the branches of learning commonly taught young men to qualify them for the learned professions one of which it is my wish each of my sons shall embrace provided they shall be estimated of suitable capacity and habits, and shall have no encouragement or ambition to trade or profession. - All the real and personal estate of whatever nature or kind now and whenever situated I will and desire that my executors hereafter named shall sell and dispose of to the best advantage either by public or private sale and upon any such sale so made either of land or personal property, I authorize my executors or a majority of them who are to make valid conveyance to the same. my estate consists amongst other things not herein before given away of a tract of land in the County of Warren State of North Carolina which I inherited of my brother William, estate, negroes, Cattle, oxen, and hogs, as also horse cattle sheep, hogs, mules, debt due to me &c. as also a valuable tract of land in the County of Macon which is now in controversy with Thomas and Alexander Ayres.
