Chapman White Decreed Will January Term 1825.

In the name of God Amen I Chapman White of Williamson County being in perfect health and of sound disposing mind, but viewing the uncertainty of human existence knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament. First I desire that my body be buried in a decent Christian like manner at the direction of my executors hereafter named, and as to what property it has pleased God to bless my wife I will and desire should be disposed of as follows, First, I will and desire that all my just debts be paid. Secondly, my desire that no part of my estate be sold except there should be a prospect of rest in any part thereof, and in that event at the direction of my executors. Thirdly, I leave to my wife the use and benefit of all my estate of every kind, real and personal both real and personal during her life or widowhood, but in the event of her marrying in that case I give and bequeath unto her the use of the plantation whereon she now lives, and one third of all the personal estate during her life, but in this respect I declare that she is not to make sale or in any way part with his last will and testament of the real property or any part thereof or any annuity made of him to be permitted either by sale of any, or otherwise. Fourthly I will and desire that all my children be supported and educated out of the profits arising from the estate until they arrive at the age of Twenty one year or more. Fifthly I will and desire that my wife Martha shall and may at her discretion give to any of my children as they arrive at lawful age or more such part or parts of my real and personal estate as she may think proper at its real value not exceeding their equal proportion of the whole estate. Sixthly I will and desire that at the death of my wife that all my estate both real and personal be divided between all my children as follows, with the exception hereinafter named, that each of my three sons and my daughter receive an equal proportion of all the estate deducting such parts as they may have previously received from their mother, but in the division of the tract of land whereon I now live, I wish it divided equally in quantity and the two parts valued those of the children receiving a greater value than the others shall pay over property at its real value to the surviving wife, the tract of land which I purchased on West Chesnut of Samuel Polk a quit for William Polk I wish divided in like manner. Seventh I give and bequeath to my brother Robert White to him and his heirs forever five acres of land including the houses whereon he now lives adjoining the land of the City running West to a ditch, three of the same, and three back to said Chesnut line so as to include the quantity. Eight my will and desire is that my executor convey to Edward Ragsdale two two hundred and forty four Aers and three fourths out of the tract of land on West Chesnut purchased of Polk agreeably to quantity and quality. Ninth I will and desire that my executor attend to the education of my son Chapman until he receives his diploma from the Medical Society of Philadelphia and at the distribution of my estate aforesaid I will that my executor deduct from his proportion of the estate such a sum as they deem reasonable and just for the money expended on his education, so as to make the whole equal between all my children. Tenthly I will and desire that my brother in law Edward Ragsdale continue in the supervision and management of my Farm and purchase at his discretion Negroes or other property for the use thereof. Eleventh I appoint Henry Pitway and my wife Martha Guardians for all my children Sixth and lastly I nominate and appoint my brother in law Edward Ragsdale and Henry Pitway to be whole and sole Executors of this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and disannulling all others by me heretofore made. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this Sixth day of March 1817.
