CONFEDERATE.

J.W.

Camp Stanford's Farm, May 10, 1863.

Captain: In obedience to orders given to Capt. C. W. Squires on the morning of the 3d instant, two guns of the First Company, Battalion Washington Artillery, one Napoleon and one 3-inch rifle gun, were placed into position by him on Marye's Heights at 7.30 a.m. with the caissons some 300 yards in the rear, protected by a ravine. By the capture of the senior ^{officer} of the company the report of the engagement devolves upon me, but as I was in rear in charge of the caissons and did not witness the engagement I am unable to report upon it. About 10.30 a.m. I was informed by the company quartermaster, (Sergt.) J. G. Timmons, that the Heights had been taken and the enemy were advancing, whereupon I moved my caissons with all dispatch from the field down the plank road and reported with them at camp near Chesterfield Station. During the engagement the valuable services of Sergt. William H. West and Corpl. J. T. Lutman were lost, both having been killed while at their posts. Braver and more chivalrous men never fought. Private J. E. Florence received a mortal wound and died from its effects on the 6th instant. I have to report by the taking of Marye's Heights the loss of the First Company, Battalion Washington Artillery.

lery: 1 Napoleon gun and limber, complete; 1 3-inch rifle gun and limber, complete; 16 horses; 4 sets lead and 2 sets wheel harness. * Killed: Sergt. W. H. West, Corpl. J. T. Lutman, Private J. E. Florence. Missing: Capt. C. W. Squires, (1st) Lieut. E. Owen, (1st) Lieut. J. M. Galbraith, Sergt. W. T. Hardie, Corpl. C. A. Everett, Private William Fellows, Jr., Private C. Psychaud, Private J. M. McCormick, Driver J. Kennedy, Private J. R. Harby, Private M. E. Harris, Private J. Myers, Private H. B. Barthelot, Private R. Alsobrook, Private A. ^{McCon}Alcon, Private J. Bozant, Driver J. Eshman, Driver P. Ryerson, Private P. Liebrecht, Private T. S. Turner, Private S. Turner, Private M. B. Phelps, Private Van Vinson, Private E. Psychaud, Private D. Kilpatrick, Driver J. L. Hock, Driver E. W. Smith.

Very respectfully,

C. H. C. Brown,

Second Lieutenant, Commanding First Company, B. W. A.
