MRS. WARREN C. HUFF

Miss Blackmon Weds Lt. Huff In Idaho

Centering widespread interest is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Mary Frances Blackmon and Lieutenant Warren C. Huff, of Pocatello, Idaho, which took place April 18 at the chapel of the Pocatello Army Air Base. The double ring ceremony was performed by Chaplain H. F. Ott, and the nuptial music was presented by Sergeant W. Crawford, organist, and Private B. Lackin, soloist. Mrs. Edwin M. Johnson, matron of honor and only attendant for the bride, chose a navy sheer dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. First Lieutenant Edwin M. Johnson served as best man.

The bride wore a two-piece suit of light blue with which she wore brown accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Idis F. Blackmon, of Atlanta, and her sisters are the Misses Ruth and Patsy Blackmon. She is a graduate of Elberton, Ga., High School and attended Central Night School, Atlanta.

Lieutenant Huff is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Huff, of Atlanta. He received his education in the Atlanta schools.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Huff are residing in Pocatello, Idaho, where Lieutenant Huff is on duty with the armed forces.

Camp Highland Opens in June For Season

An economical out-of-doors vacation, with sports and crafts to suit every individual interest and talent, is available for girls 9 to 17 years of age at the Y. W. C. A.'s Camp Highland near Atlanta. Camp will be open June 11 to August 6 for the twenty-eighth season, and reservations for the two-week periods are being taken now at the Y. W. C. A., 37 Auburn Avenue.

Swimming, tennis and horseback riding are available for those who like vigorous outdoor exercise; archery, folk dancing, hiking and hayrides for those who prefer less strenuous activities.

New skills can be developed and old ones perfected in handicrafts, dramatics, group singing and nature-love groups. Qualified instructors will teach first aid and life-saving. Regular lunches, wholesome meals, outdoor exercises, directed sports, new friends and plenty of fun assure parents of a wholesome, happy vacation for their children.

Miss Jessie Pridmore, who has been at Camp Highland for five years as counselor, will be the director this summer. Assisting her will be senior counselors selected from college students and young teachers with special skills in sports, crafts, dramatics and recreation, and junior assistants chosen from high school leaders.

The Southern train leaves Atlanta daily at 2:40, E. W. T., and stops at Camp Highland's entrance, where counselors meet all campers.

A bulletin containing complete information about Camp Highland will be mailed upon request to the Y. W. C. A., 37 Auburn Avenue.
