NATHANIEL CAMP (PATRIOT)

(4th Son of Thomas Camp and Winifred Starling)

Born 1745

Died -----

Married Miss Tarpley

Nathan fought with his brothers, John and Benjamin at King's Mountain capturing two of their own brothers, "Kings Men" holding them prisoners in a corn crib until after the battle.

"Nathan" found on the battle field a couch shell with a silver mouth piece that belonged to Major Ferguson who was killed. In 1915 this relic was in possession of one of Nathan's descendants, Mrs. R. W. Everett, Rockmart, Georgia
