Hello Ms. Austin,

I am a descendant of Christopher Columbus C (b. 10 Jun 1892, Millry, Washington Co., AL). He married John Raborn and Amy Lott, about 1872 in Was

I believe his parents were Zachariah Chambliss (b. c. 1800, Wilkes County, Georgia, d. bef. 1880, Mississippi) and Sarah (b. c. 1800, North Carolina, d. ?).

To help in solving this mystery, I ran a family tree. A new Y-111 Y-DNA match appeared in Aug. of 2019. We are a genetic distance of 1, which means they are a close relationship. Most one-off matches are 2nd cousins or closer, and over half are 2nd cousins or closer or even 3rd cousins, I do believe the shared line descends from Andrew Jackson Chambliss (b. abt. 1821), the son of John Chambliss (b. abt. 1780, Bolingbroke, Monroe, Georgia, US, d. Nov 1850, Bolingbroke, Monroe, Georgia, US, d. Georgia, USA).

To verify his lines and discover a potential connection to the Georgiapioneers and all the incredible research you have done.

I would love to connect and consult with you on this. I am interested. Since you have researched these lines, I would like you to put all the pieces of the puzzle together for me.

Hoping to hear from you soon!

Kindest regards,
Carla Davis
