Notes

HUSBAND - Henry Chambliss

Henry Chambliss was found in the early Prince George County, Virginia records. His LWT dated 1717 stated that he was of Bristol Parish. To his son, John, he bequeathed the plantation "whereon I now live" bounded by the swamp and the Miery Branch. It is presumed that the plantation was on the James REiver. Henry Chambliss must have resided near his father-in-law, John Moore, who surrendered his worldly goods to this daughter, Mary Chambliss, widow of John Chambliss provided that she maintain him, recorded 11 Jan 1720.
