Grandmother also told of how she had a beau she wished to marry, but that her mother (Elizabeth Smith Clements Chambliss) alerted her that it was unwise to marry this beau because he was sickly; he might die at an early age, leaving her uncared for. So, she married my grandfather, Homer James Evans, who, after aged 40, fell from the rooftop of their house in Atlanta (while repairing it), and died. Thus leaving my grandmother to survive on a meager pension.
