

Notice.

WHEREAS the Books that Mr. John Davison, deceased, kept for Crookshanks & Speers, and Crookshanks & Co. were assigned over to me on the 1st of May 1788, and also received a full power of attorney from the above concerns to recover the debts due on the said Books, in payment of a debt due me by the said Company, and being informed that the deceased took specialties from the different people who stand indebted on the Books, and as some of them are withheld from me; I give this notice, that no person can be safe in paying them to any other person than myself, as their respective accompts, as yet, stand open on the Books.

I now take the liberty to inform all persons who stand indebted on the said Books, that I am about to place their accounts in the hands of an Attorney, to be recovered as the law directs, as no further indulgence can be given; and all those to whom the said deceased was indebted on account of the above concern, are desired to render in their accounts properly attested to me.
