

James Dunklin House

James Dunklin House

The beautiful James Dunklin House was built ca 1812 as a two-story home with five bays. At the time, it was a typical upcountry frame house with Federal elements. It features informally spaced columns and two pipe-stem chimneys. A wing was removed in 1845 to make modern structural improvements.