FOR SALE.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING CONCLUDED to remove South offers for sale or lease the St. Nicholas Hotel, situated in the centre of the beautiful town of Murfreesboro', N. C., almost immediately in front of the Baptist Female Institute and Wesleyau College. The above property possesses a great many advantages that would be difficult to enumerate in an advertisement. Persons visiting the town on business of any kind, dentist, daguerreo typist, performers, exhibitionist, &c., can find at this Hotel advantages independent of its location seldom met with in a place of this size. For drovers a large lot fronting Main Street, where their stock can be exhibited to great advantage. The stables are one hundred feet long and well constructed. The Hotel is now doing a good business, having twenty-five regular boarders and receiving a very large share of patronage from the travelling community. Adjoining the Hotel is a fine two-story store house and warehouse, which can be had with the other property if desired. A two-horse coach with the U. S. mail leaves the Hotel for Boykin's depot and arrives daily. To an energetic individual, possessing some experience in Hotel keeping, a rare opportunity is now offered. For further particulars address H. & JAS. M. TRADER, Murfreesborough, N. C. December 19, 1856.
