Lineage (of DILWORTH).—This family appears to have derived its name from Dillesworth, or Dilworth, a township in the parish of Ribchester, and hundred of Blackburn, Lancashire.

JOHN DILWORTH, a guild-merchant of Preston, Lancashire, 1584, b. circa. 1515, had a son,

RICHARD DILWORTH, also a guild-merchant the same year, who was father of

JAMES DILWORTH, guild-merchant of Preston 1602, who resided in Chipping parish. He was twice married, his first wife being buried 1 Oct. 1603; his second wife was bur. 23 Feb. 1623, but in neither case are the Christian names recorded. By his first wife, he had issue,

JAMES DILWORTH, bapt. at Chipping, 25 July, 1577; d. before 1649, having had, by Isabel, his wife, a youngest son,

JAMES DILWORTH, bapt. 14 Nov. 1623, who leased Bradley Hall, Thrmley-cum-Wheatley, in Chipping parish, from Thomas Tildesley. His first wife, Elizabeth, who became a member of the Society of Friends, was bur. June, 1675. He was bur. 14 June, 1678, leaving three sons, William, James and Thomas, all of Bradley Hall, and all three Quakers.

The second son,

JAMES DILWORTH, of Bradley Hall, b. about 1658; m. 9 May, 1680, Ann, dau. of Richard Wain, of Burholme (Burham), a district of Bowland, near Lancaster, and with his wife and infant son, William, embarked for America in 1682, arriving in Pennsylvania in Aug. They settled in Bristol Township, Bucks County, and became active members of the Friends' community in their new abode. James Dilworth, who was a member of the Assembly from Bucks Co. in 1685, d. before 10 Dec. 1700 (date of probate of will), having had by Ann, his wife (who re-married Christopher Sibthorp, of Chester Co.), seven children in addition to the son born in England. The second son,

RICHARD DILWORTH, b. in Bristol Township, 8 May, 1683; m. 1st, 25 June, 1707, Elizabeth, dau. of John Worrall; and 2ndly, 26 April, 1721, Ann, dau. of Thomas Maurle or Marl, of Chester Co., and d. 1749, having by his second wife (who d. 15 May, 1738), had a son,

JACOB DILWORTH, of Bristol Township, who fought as a private soldier in Capt. Caleb Armitage's company, Philadelphia County Militia, during the Revolutionary War. He m. Elizabeth, dau. of Rees Nanna, and d. Dec. 1809, leaving a dau.,
