BIOGRAPHIES

Benjamin O. Holland (1867 - ) was born in Monongalia County and educated in the public schools. In 1882, he was engaged as an employee in the mercantile business. He began business for himself in Logan in 1890 and continued until 1903. He was Secretary and Director in the Guyan Coal Co. And a director in the Hudson School Furniture Company of Logan. He was appointed postmaster of Logan by President McKinley, and in 1902, was elected to the State Senate.

Claude Llewellyn Holland (1879- ), born in Monogalia Co., West Virginia, was a physician in the City of Fairmont. He specialized in the diagnosis and treatment of the diseases of children. Dr. Holland was raised on the home farm and was educated in local schools. Afterwards, he attended the State Normal School in Fairmont and the University of West Virginia, but did not graduate from either. He received his M. D. Degree in 1901 from Maryland Medical College in Baltimore, and did special post-graduate work in children's diseases at Harvard University, Massachusetts. He was the third physician in West Virginia to specialize in this field. Dr. Holland married Elsie Amos, of Fairmont, a daughter of Justice Elias S. Amos, in 1903. They had two sons.

HISTORY OF GWINNETT COUNTY, GEORGIA

“Sam Holland married Malissee Bennett and moved from North Carolina to Hall County, Georgia. He was a wheelwright by trade and his services were in constant demand in erecting wheat and corn mills in his community.

One of his children was Archibald H.

Holland, who spent most of his life in Gwinnett County. He was a farmer, a preacher of the Baptist faith and educate dhis children far above the average of his day. He was born Aug. 2, 1844 and died Feb. 21, 1934. He resided in Lawrenceville, perhaps forty years. At the age of 16 young Holland attended a rally for enlisting recruits for the Confederate army He became so enthused on this occasion that h e immediately joined Company I, 24th Ga. Regiment, Woffard's Brigade, Longstreet's Corps, Lee's army. His mother, hearing of her son's joining the army, mounted a horse and started after him, but was not able to catch up with the young soldier. He, together with the other volunteers, spent the first night in Lawrenceville campground, then moved on to Virginia. He was in many battles, and during the second day's fighting at Getttysburg was wounded, captured and sent to David's Island, N. Y. Later, he was echanged and granted a leave of absence for the remainder of the year.

He was married three times. His first wife was Polly Pugh of Hall County. Their only child was Louvenia Arvaline, who married A. T. Patterson (Children: Mattie, Mae, James, Tandy, Lois and A. T.). his second wife was Jeannette Mauldin. Children: Ezekiel H., who married Neppie Warren. (Children: Warren, Frank, Dorothy, Francis, Truman, Jennette); Truman M. who married Ida Wall. (Children: Dinsmore, Truman, Glenn and Lanelle); Cora Lee who married (1) J. A. Coffee. (Children: Morris, William) and (2) Edward Wheeler; Anna Belle, who married Manassa Sammon (Children: Margaret); Willis A., who married Cora Webb (children: Willis, Robert, John, Martha Sue and Jack); Alice who married Bob Sammon (Children: Dick, Tom, Harry and Alice May). His third wife was Mollie Howington.”

Holland, Daniel Ringgold. Co. B, 1st Regt. Potomac Home Brigade “Cole’s” Cavalry (US) Millstone. Enlisted at Clear Spring, 24 Aug 1861. Captured the following year near Hancock and sent to Libby Prison at Richmond, for two weeks and then exchanged. In the thick of action at Brandy Station, in 1863, he was captured again, this time by Mosby’s guerillas, and held for two and one-half months. Holland fought at first and second Winchester and his reputation was such that the Rebels offered him $2,000 to change sides. After the war he worked for the C & O Canal and later opened a store at Lappan’s Crossroads. His brother, Joseph, served in the U. S. Army, was captured and jailed at Libby Prison, where he died.

The following information comes from Jean Cobb, 1419 Robin Hood Place, Lynchburg, VA 24503-2517. Email: jeanwcewondnet.att.net.

Her Holland lineage begins in Isle of Wight Co., Virginia with Charlotte Holland who m. Benjamin Council. (Note: The Council family is also a family which migrated to this county from England in early 1600's).

Charlotte Holland was b. 1777, died 1835 Isle of Wight Co., VA, m. 1807 in Isle of Wight Co., Benjamin Council, b. 11/7/1779 Isle of Wight Co., Va., d. 3/1841 Isle of Wight Co., Va, the son of James Council and Miriam Johnson Wills. Issue:

1. Wrenny Council born 2/1/1808 Isle of Wight Co., Va.
2. Wiley Council born 2/1/1811 Isle of Wight Co., Va. m. Nancy Howell.
3. Martha Council born 9/24/1814 Isle of Wight Co., Va. m. 9/18/1832 Jonas Edwards.
4. James Council born 10/15/1816 Isle of Wight Co., Va.
5. Albert Council born 11/21/1819 Isle of Wight Co., Va.
6. Benjamin Council born 1/23/1825 Isle of Wight Co., Va.
7. Charlotte Council born 4/21/1822 Isle of Wight Co., Va.
8. Elmina Council born 10/12/1827 Isle of Wight Co., Va.
9. Mary Arlina Council born 9/7/1830 Isle of Wight Co., Va. m. 12/21/1854 Obediah Gardner.

"Mary was born 7 September 1830, the youngest of nine children born to Benjamin Council and his wife, Charlotte Holland, between 1808 and 1830....I was lucky enough to find a relative with a Bible record of the children, so my information about their names and ages is accurate by family records. Benjamin died unexpectedly in 184041; Charlotte must have died before he did, because she is not mentioned in any of the estate papers. Four of the children were apparently grown when he died. Two girls, Charlotte and Elmina, both must have also died before Benjamin, because his estate papers mention only three minor children: Albert, Benjamin and our Mary, who was called Polly... When Benjamin died, the oldest boy, Wiley, was named by the court to be guardian to the three minor children, and then the fur starts to fly in court papers. Albert sued for his share and Wiley was several times called to court to "report an account of his acts as Mary's guardian." Son, Benjamin's name doesn't turn up in these court records, but from later censuses I figured out that he got married and lived happily ever after. Well, for some reason, in 1849 the court named John M. Holland as Mary's guardian, and that is where she is at eighteen in the 1850 census....the household of John M. Holland. I'm pretty sure that John M. Was Mary's uncle---her mother's brother.... Obviously we'll never know what really happened to little Mary "Polly" Councill, who was an orphan at ten, but she was clearly a survivor. She married Obediah Gardner in 1854, had two children by Obediah, and then when he died in 1861, she married again almost at once, a George Washington Holland; in fact, she signed Obediah's death certificate as "Mary Holland".

The Hollands came over from England or Scotland about 1725. They settled in Virginia (See Burke's Landed Gentry). In Griffin's History of Rutherford County, N. C. I find what I think is one of our ancestors---James Holland. He appeared to be a man of means. He deeded a tract of land to Rutherford Co. for the building of the first courthouse built in that county.

In the 1790 Census for South Carolina, we find in Greenville District, just south of Rutherford Co., N. C., Sam Holland. He was, at that time, the father of three boys, one of whom was over 16 years of age. Sam Holland moved to Fayette Co., Ga. between 1790 and 1823. James Holland was born in 1800, in all probability in S. C. In 1823 or the early spring of 1824, James Holland moved with his family, consisting of his wife and wife's mother, from Fayette Co., Ga. to Black Dirt, Carroll Co., Ga. Uncle Lindsey Holland was born in 1824 in Carroll Co., Ga.

My great grandfather, Sam Holland, had a son, Sam. This Sam settled in Paulding Co. Two sons that I am sure of--Thomas and George lived near the line of Paulding and Haralson. George operated a blacksmith shop. He got into a fight with a man and this man threw a rock that killed George.

Seeking George Holland m. Adeline Kirkpatrick in either Madison or Fayette Co., Ohio in 1851. Family Records say that George was born ca 1826 in, I think, Ross Co. His father, Charles b. 1787 in Maryland, moved to Ohio ca 1825. George and Adeline lived in Bloomingburg, Ohio (Fayette Co.) Where they raised a large family. My family line in this search is the Kirkpatrick line, Adeline's younger sister, Agnes, being my grgrandmother.

Joseph Holland may have been in the Pee

Dee Region, S. C. as early as 1745, but was definitely a witness to two deeds in 1755, in which George and Joseph Chandler, sons of said John Chandler, respectively acquired halves of a 500 acre tract a few miles up Jeffries Creek from their father. In 1757, Joseph Holland bought said tracts from George and Joseph Chandler. Holland was a pivotal figure in some of the engagements of the uprising of the "Regulators" in S. C. In the 1760's. We strong suspect Joseph Holland came to the Pee Dee from Virginia (perhaps with a stopover in N. C. for several years) where a sizeable family is documented in Boddie's Southern Historical Families. Other members of the family did settle in Chowan and NE N. C. Counties after 1700. Interested in information about this S. C. Holland family.

Subject: HOLLAND-CLAYTON

I descend from a daughter of Lewis & Sarah Holland. Her name was Mary (Elizabeth?) Holland, and she died at Marianna, Jackson Co., FL sometime between 1831 and 1835. I believe some of her brothers were named Moses and Allen.

The Holland family had moved into Jackson Co., FL from the Pulaski Co., GA area, where they had lived for several years.

I know little about them, but have heard that she was related to the Claytons of VA. This is a long shot, but was wondering if anyone out there knew of a Holland-Clayton connection. I realize some of the Claytons of VA were prominent, with connections to Zachary Taylor's family tree. But even though my Mary Holland married a Taylor (NC/GA), I have seen no Clayton connection as yet. And it would have had to have connected prior to her death, I believe.

My G Grandfather H.H. HOLLAND, b 8 Jan 1819, SC do not know his parents. He moved to TN and mar. Eliza TODD b 2 Apr 1820 TN/NC? They lived near Nashville, TN. and they had 4 children born there. He seem to have been a wagon master- deliver supplies. I found him in Hardeman Co., TN

1850 Census. They had 9 children. They moved to Cotton Plant, AR about 1860 and died there 5 Aug 1865. He probably went there to be near relatives. Two sons were Confederate soldiers and were killed. His widow returned to TN Thanks for any news regarding this parents or brothers or sisters. I never was able to find his burying place. The court house in AR was burned. The farm was taken away from the Widow.

We are not directly related to the Holland family, but are looking for help in locating the descendants of Mrs. Mellie Holland, last known address Alex, Colorado in the year 1903. She was apparently the sister, step sister or half sister of my husband's late great grandfather, Allen Cox. She probably would have been born either in Indiana or in Christian Co., IL. More than likely her spouse would have been involved in mining. We have discovered that Alex, Colorado did not exist as a community but as a mining area - Christian Co., IL was also a major mining area.

HOLLAND, Ann b. c 1603 in England. She married Roger Bassett 27 Apr 1623 at St. Martin's in Dorking, Surrey. Widowed, she later married Hugh Burt. With him and his daughter and two sons, and her son, William Bassett (b 30 May 1624), she came to Mass Bay Colony on the "Abigail." They were one of the first families at Lynn, MA.

Accused of witchcraft in 1669, she was not convicted. Son, William, married Sarah, perhaps Sarah Burt, his step-sister. One of their daughters, Elizabeth, married John Proctor and they, along with others in the extended family were caught up in the Salem witchcraft craze in the 1690s. John Proctor was hanged in 1692. This family is featured (not accurately) in the play (now the movie) "The Crucible."

Ann's parents may have been Richard Holland and Winnifred Pierce.

Any information on the Holland, Bassett, and Burt families will be greatly appreciated. In the southeast corner of England (as well as other places), there used to be nobles and gentry who were Hollands and Bassets. Any connections here?

Benjamin (Benny) HOLLAND, was a Methodist Minister. He was born Feb. 11, 1809 in Ohio. He married Mildred PATTON, who was born Feb. 8, 1811. She was the daughter of Michael PATTON and Ruth FERRELL. They had two known daughters:

- Sarah Catherine Holland, born Sept. 15, 1846 in Lee Co., Iowa. She married David Henry EMERY, son of Frederick Welker EMERY and Hannah GAFFNEY, in Oskaloosa, Iowa on May 23, 1867. They had seven children: Roscoe, Wilbur, Edwin H., Herbert, Alice A., Irving G., and Clara Edith. Sarah died in 1907 in Sioux City, Iowa of accidental burns from a gasoline fire caused by poor eye sight from an eye injury. The fire occurred at her son Irving's home. Her husband David died Jan. 10, 1918 in Ottumwa, Iowa.

- Lourena Jennie Holland. The only information I have on Lourena is she had a daughter by her second husband who was named Ella (LAWSON).

Benjamin and Mildred Holland both died in 1879 .

This is all I have other than some more information of David and Sarah Emery's children. I can supply it if you want, but since it's running away from the Holland's I didn't include it now. I know it's not much, but it's all I know. If you can add anything please let me know. Thanks.

"On page 6 of No. 1, July 1997 Newsletter there is a section on a William Holland, born 1799 probably in Greenville Dist., S. C. This William has a son (#6), Amos P. (The P. Is for Prater according to some marriage records) Holland who married Mary Jane McCaskill in Lawrence Co., TN. My cousin and I recently visited Pleasant Site Cemetery just west of Fremont, Missouri (Cater County) and found two tombstones which we cleaned up and tried to photograph. We knew we were related to Mary Jane McCaskill (a daughter of Allen McCaskill and Rebecca Lewis who are our ggg grandparents), but we did not have a clue how we were related to Amos Prater Holland.

We are descendants of Harrison Holland, born 1802 in S. C. whose son, Thomas, married Catherine Ester McCaskill (another daughter of Allen). His father, like William's, was a Thomas Holland. All of these people show up in Lawrence Co., TN and Lauderdale, AL. Looks like William and Harrison are brothers....Anyway, back to my tombstone story. Just got the photos. One of them reads....Amos P. Holland born 3/1/1832, died 2/1873(?). The other reads...M. A., wife of A. P. Holland, died 3/30/1876, aged 37 years."
