LETTER FROM LANY HOLLAND, in Huntsville, Alabama Library

Letter to Margaret from Lany Holland dated Feb 12, 1964:

"One of my cousins made some search for our family and I am giving you what she said about the Hollands:

Henry Langston was born 23 Jan 1769 on his fathers plantation near Langston Church. He married Sarah Murphy, who born in Ireland Nov 29, 1769. she came over with her parents when she was 7 years old. Her father was a scotch Presbyterian. HE spoke Gaelic. They were Scotch who settled with Protestants in Northern Ireland on account of their religious beliefs and then immigrated to America. Their children were Margaret, James, William, Mary, Sarah, John, Mahaleth, Thomas and Tirzah.

Mahaleth Langston married Jeremiah Holland. Their children were John, Henry, Thomas, Mary, Sarah, Jane, Charity, Eliza, Armentie and Ann. Mary married a Greenslade, Sarh md William H. Aston, Charity md a Norwood, Armentie md John Armstrong. They lived in Anderson SC.

Jeremiah Holland and his wife Mahaleth Langston Holland immigrated to Lawrence Co Alabama.

EMIGRANTS TO PENNSYLVANIA

William Holland with consent of his father Thomas Holland, indents himself apprentice to Thomas Gant of Phila. joiner, for four years and nine months from this date to be taught the trade of a joiner, his father to find him in apparel the first year, and his master the remainder of his time, to have six weeks night schooling every winter to be paid by his father. May 19, 1746.

John Frances Holland migrated to Baltimore Apr 15, 1707 , German.

QUERIES

I'm still seeking to find ancestors et al of William Hamilton HOLLAND b. 1854 in Dutch Mills, AR who married Ruth Tennessee LITTLE b. 1854 also in Dutch Mills, AR. They were residing in Bell Co, TX in 1886 when my grandfather was born. I believe his birthorder was about the middle of possibly 10 children. They moved to OK, 1900-1905 ?. They were living in Sequoyah Co, OK when they died in the 1930's. If anyone recognizes this family, I'd like to hear from you. Gail Miller. From: Email: GAM1949 <GAM1949@aol.com>

I am interested in researching the background of a "Holland" ancestor of mine, specifically, Agatha Holland b. 10 May 1768, daughter of George Holland b. 1727 Hanover Co., VA. If your organization could be of help to me I would be delighted to join,

Richard Rowley Wright

There is information on the web suggesting that Agatha's father George was the George who married Mary Coleman and who is descended from Gabriel Holland of Jamestown. Unfortunately, there is no documentation to support this. My George ended up his life in Grayson County where a will is recorded for him (of which I have a copy.)

North Carolina Holland's

Looking for information on JAMES HOLLAND Sr of Wake County, NC, whose will was probated in 1798. Also his son, SAMPSON HOLLAND, will probated in Chatham County, NC in 1837. SAMPSON's siblings are NEEDHAM, BRITTON, ELIJAH, GENSE, LEVY, MILEY and WILEY. NEEDHAM HOLLAND moved to West TN around 1820. He died in Gibson County, TN in 1843. Anything would be greatly appreciated.

HEZEKIAH HOLLAND, b. abt 1780, location unknown. Died 1837-1839 in Warren County, KY. Wife named Franky. Hezekiah received a KY land grant in 1822. He appears in the 1830 KY census but not the 1820 census.

Hezekiah's children: (1) George H. Holland [my gggrandfather], b. 07 Jun 1801 in Warren Co. KY, d. 16 Sep 1847, Warren Co. (2) William Holland; (3) Michael Holland; (4) Hezekiah Holland, Jr.

This is my mother's line and her middle name was Adair and she always said it was a family name so I am working on the assumption that it may intersect with the Holland line.

Can anyone help?

I am a new researcher just beginning the hunt. Do you have info on the Charles Holland born 1758 in the Netherlands. I am interested in any books etc. you may suggest. I believe my line descends from his but I am missing some links in the chain.
