

Charles Lavendar

Valley Forge

Charles Lavender was a resident of Amherst County, Virginia when he enlisted in the American Revolutionary War. He fought under General George Washington and was at Valley Forge in 1777. He was man six foot three inches tall who had 22 children by two wives.

However, at the time of his death in Edgefield District at the age of 99 years, only three of his children were living.