

SATURDAY, November 4, 1786.

[No. VI.]

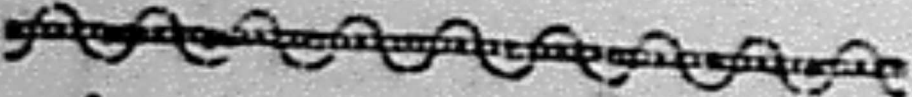

T H E

GEORGIA STATE GAZETTE

O R

INDEPENDENT REGISTER.

FREEDOM of the PRESS, and TRIAL by JURY, to remain inviolate forever. Constitution of Georgia

An extraordinary Birth.

Mrs. Prudence Maples, wife of Mr. William Maples, living on Horn's creek, in South-Carolina, in the 49th year of her age, and going with her 19th child, was about 6 years ago in the county of Lunenburg, in Virginia, delivered of a child, a girl, perfect in all its members as to number and size, to which was grown exactly half of another child, a boy; not an excrescence, for it had half a head and of the same size as the perfect child, with the members,