MONDAY 29

APRIL

St Sewell suggested that by adding to the length of the jumping we could make the tank jump further. None of us had ever thought of it before. He said that it was so obvious that he had forget to mention it.

This is a most important discovery and can be done today.

I discussed the results of a tank with May, Champion and went to them out.

Empire Day

Saw a maneuver with 4 tanks and a Bn. Inf. Not over 500 men of 34 Pers. Men small and young Bn. Commanded by a Capt. Looked like. Noted that when lines moved men did not simulate fire.
Was told that they never fire
and in last attack that they took 600 m of trenches with out firing a shot.

Tanks were slow in getting up
and moved across front
in a long oblique.

Airplanes passed last night
dropped six bombs near town but did not hit any thing. H. also 4 ft deep and 7 or 8 feet across. Heard a Bn. start at 2 A.M.

Called a Corps commander
Did not speak a word of English all day but talked nearly.

Saw brooding warrens.

1918

SATURDAY 25 ○

Went to a manure in the morning which was interesting. Gen was there to watch it he is the youngest gen in the French army being 42.

Putty nearly died of nothing to do went for a walk in the P.M. saw a lot of transport moving up back of a forest.

The Captains of all the units were at supper and it was most interesting. We talked (or I did) till 10:30.

Saw a Crucifix of unusual size with "GAZ" on it. Thought it had on Christ.

MAY

SUNDAY 26

1918

Condé. <sup>Trinity Sunday</sup> La Ferme and I went to ESTRES-ST-DENI'S to see where he detached his group. Then we went to EREUSE where he went that night.

We then followed his road to LEGLANTIERES and MONTIERES. Finally to ST. MARTIN-AUX-BOIS just to the east of this is a hill with an old mill commanding a fine view of the Bosch. At St. Martin is a fine church of 11 century I did not look at it.

May. de Ferme explained to me what to do in entering a new region I went it all down.

1918

MONDAY 27

MAY

Prof. Le F and I went through
St. Martin to Ménévillers
and then north till we reached the R.R. here we left the car and went east in a ravine passing a battery of 155 with hidden under nets. But they had not hidden their food
so were seen to be known.
all the ammunition were in small bales so all would not blow up. We located some good no. 2 positions for tanks there were a lot of fresh shell holes but none came while we were there we then went N.W. along the R.R. in search of more positions but found none.
Saw 2 Bats. of 75 in action
W. of Méry. Also saw some Borch planes being shot at.
but dinner heard Borch were attacking Paris with gas
just heard of new battle
at REIMES.

MAY

TUESDAY 28

1918

Heavy bombardment last night
bombs came at 11 & 2 but did not hit us. Lots of shrapnel fell on the roof.

Went to ~~Montgerain~~ MONTGERAIN
to an observation post this morning there was a mist so we could not see well but saw Borch 3 machines near Rodlat also saw COURCELLES being shelled by Borch and saw several planes being shot at.

Had interesting talk with Capt.
for Helbre on tanks at lunch. Saw Borch planes flew right over us at 2 P.M. taking pictures they were being shelled but to no purpose. Heard that it was the 5th British army
near RHEMES and a poor French Corps fear had results.
The D.P. was in a hospital

1918

WEDNESDAY 29

MAY

Nothing. Got up at 8 a.m. and walked around town and saw a horse whose a horse had fallen and not gone off.

In P.M. Robinson and I walked about 2 miles towards the line but saw nothing of interest.

When we came back they told us 3 divisions had been taken. Only 4 Div were holding the line when the breach attacked. 2 of the 5 British Army and 2 French Div. The French were completely fooled as they had looked for an attack near Arras.

The French are Blue and say that they cannot attack until the U.S. gets 30 Div over. They say that the British will not attack again.

MAY

1918

Left with Condit. Left here in auto at 7:30 to Godenvillers. Walked along a Rayon to a farm near (N) of Rubescourt. At this farm two shells fell 100 yds from us passed along front line for 1000 yds about 300 yds from front line but we could not see them. There were many shell holes. We crossed a field on a hill 300 to 400 yds from the front but they did not shoot at us which seemed to me foolish as they could have easily gotten us. As we neared the Plovron it was being shelled but when we entered it the soldiers were walking about in great numbers.

We visited the lat and had some beer. He had a fine abri. Then we went back to the water a shell fell near us as we crossed the R.R. but did not explode. Later some did.

Col. MAXIE. Dead. M.G. killed.

1918

FRIDAY 31

MAY

Left Leqantiers went by St. Just and Breteuil to a farm to the east of Paillant where we saw the group which had attacked on the 2nd with the 28" light. No tank was hit by a shell and none pierced by a ball. No causal. Left lost 300 men. Col. Maxie went to HQ 1st Div at Le Mesnil. Here met Col. King C of S and also talked with Capt Johnston who had been in command of the assault wave of infantry with the tanks at CANTIGNY. He was not enthusiastic. In passing through the large towns it was sad to see them completely deserted. The French say our light followed the Bourgeois more better than this and take better cover.
