

Lieut. Peterson Missing in Action

First Lieutenant William Langdon Peterson Jr., 21, son of Mrs. E. M. Peterson, 1241 West Peachtree Street, N. E., has been reported missing in action. He was in the European theater of operations, in the Air Corps.

He is a graduate of Boys' High School and entered the Army in January, 1942, and was first stationed at Maxwell Field, Ala. He was commissioned at Victorville, Cal., in August, 1942. He served as an instructor after winning his wings, before going overseas.

LT. PETERSON

A brother is F. A. Booth Jr., of Miami.

When Mrs. Peterson brought her

GRA
ROO

F Ju
da
Ro
ba W ha to th
Co

Two

SA
—(D
King
Jose
as d a pl field
King
King
mer lege

son
Thu
mak
Red

DAVISON'S WA. 7612