F R E E D O M of the P R E S S, and T R I A L by J U R Y, to remain inviolate forever. Constitution of Georgia.

AUGUST A: Printed by JOHN E. SMITH, Printer to the State; Essays, Articles of Intelligence, Advertisements, &c. will be gratefully received, and every kind of Printing performed.

To the Public.

AS many of the most respectable Ladies and Gentlemen in this town have informed the subscriber, that they are very desirous to become scholars of his, provided he can furnish them with the necessary Music and Instruments,—he proposes to have a

CONCERT

Of Vocal and Instrumental Music,

On the Evening of TUESDAY, the first of MAY next, at Mr. Wambersie's House; with a view of raising a sum of money for the express purpose of purchasing Musical Instruments. And as a sufficient number of Gentlemen of this town have generously offered to assist him in the performance of the same, for the encouragement of a science which is as rational as it is refined, and polishing as it is entertaining,—the subscriber hopes, the Ladies and Gentlemen in general will be actuated by the same liberal sentiments, and favor him with their company.

The Concert to begin at 7 o'Clock in the evening. After the Concert, if the Ladies and Gentlemen wish to dance, Music will be furnished gratis.

Tickets, at Ten Shillings each, may be had at the house of the subscriber.

CLAUDE SIMON.

Augusta, April 21, 1787.

N. B. No person can be admitted without a ticket, and no money will be received at the door.

NATHANIEL COCKE informs me that two white Sows came to his Plantation, just above Rae's Creek, some time about last Christmas, marked with a smooth crop in the right, and an underkeel in the left ear.

WILLIAM FREEMAN, J. P.

April 5, 1787.

A STRAY MARE.

STRAYED from the subscriber, near Clark's station, on Long Creek, a small black MARE, about 13 hands high, 4 years old, branded on the ear buttock thus IC, had a small bell on when sent away. Whoever will bring said mare to the subscriber, or will give intelligence so that the subscriber can get her, shall have Forty Shillings reward.

JOSEPH ALBERT.

Long Creek, Wilkes County,
April 10, 1787.

TO BE LET,

By the Commissioners of Lewisville, to the lowest Bidder,

THE making one hundred thousand well sized merchantable bricks for the public buildings, to be delivered in Government Square; there is clay, wood, and water on the public land. Any person inclined to undertake will please send their proposals, sealed up, to Hugh Lawson, at Lewisville, on or before the first day of June next, at which time such proposals will be opened, and the lowest terms accepted, on the parties giving security for the performance. One half of the money will be paid on the bricks being kilned, the other half to be paid on the bricks being delivered. The bricks to be delivered within three months from the time of undertaking.

All persons who are indebted for Lots in Lewisville, will please to take notice, that unless they discharge the same without loss of time, the Commissioners will be obliged to proceed according to the articles of sale.

N. BROWNSON, }
H. LAWSON, } Commissioners.

Lewisville, April 7, 1787.

Five Guineas Reward.

STOLEN or STRAYED from Mr. Thompson's enclosure, near the town of Augusta, on the 26th of last month, a likely black MARE, very heavy with foal, eight or nine years old, about 14 hands and an half high; she has a bald face, all her feet white, a hanging mane, long full tail, and is branded on the off buttock (though not very plain) GL, having been formerly owned by Mr. George Lumpkins, of Wilkes County, of whom she was purchased. If strayed away only, I will give a liberal Reward, and all expences on her being delivered to me at Augusta; but if stolen, Five Guineas will be paid on conviction of the Thief.
