Will proved 4-9-1729 at Bergen Van Riper or Van Rensselaer
The record of his M. gives his name as Spier. Later moved to Second River. Sometimes had deeds made to "Tunis Johnson (alias Speare)". If his name was Spier, not Pier, he was doubtless an uncle of Jan Hendricks
Spier (#20) i.e. a brother of #1A/ Hendrick Jansen Spier.
He could not sign his will so no proof there.

HENDRICK JANSEN SPIER, or Spieringh, emigrated on the good ship "Faith" from Best in Gelderland, near Wageningen, Holland, in 1659. He brought with him his wife, Magdalena Hansen and two of his children, Jan and Barent. Immediately he bought a lot in New Amsterdam from Peter Menist, but occupied only three years, for in 1662 (May 9) he sold it to Christoffel Van Leer. The house was located on Heere Graft. In this deed of sale, Hendrick is styled as of Gemoenepa (now Communipaw). In 1661 he had a controversy over a bill for repairs for this house in New Amsterdam and the matter was referred to arbiters. (Calendar of N.Y. History MSS Vol. I Page 226 to 228) Hence he was a carpenter or mason in all probability. After selling out his interests in New Amsterdam, he began to acquire lands in New Cesara (New Jersey). He purchased of Severyn Laurensen a tract of 70 acres extending from the Hudson to the Kil van Kol. This was sold by his widow in 1694 to pay off his debts. In 1662 he enjoyed the melancholy distinction of being alone in refusing to contribute toward the support of a clergyman at Bergen. (N.Y. Colonial Documents XIII, p 233.) Perhaps he thought that ministerial support was a needless luxury because he had only to row across the bay to Church in the Fort on the Battery. In 1679 he bought a large tract adjoining the above, from Jan Lubbertson who was a grantee from English authority. This tract was on the easterly shore of the Hackensack River, and it stayed with the family until 1768. He died before 1681. His widow married as the third wife of Aertsen van der Bilt, on Dec. 10, 1691.

The correct form of the name is Spier and it means "Muscle" or spinal marrow.

Hans Spier (Son of above Hendrick) was a large land owner in Belleville, Horseneck, Newark etc.

Johannis Spier who married Magdalena Van Dyck on May 11 1746 (son of above Hans Spier) was the man who shot a British spy from the belfry of the Dutch church in Belleville. He was in the Amer Revol. and had five sons with him, James Speer (Or Jacobus) of Bloomfield married Rachel Koningh or King on March 21st 1778. Married second Hannah Grimes.

Garrett Henry Spear, (son of above James or Jacobus) born and reared in Bloomfield d 4-2-1916. Married Harriet M. Southwick of Boston, Mass who is a direct descendent of Lawrence and Cassandra Southwick, the Quakers who were banished from Salem during the witchcraft delusion. On her maternal side she was descended from Miles Standish.

FRANCIS HENRY SPEAR b 2-1-1864 in Brooklyn N.Y. and married Alice Whipple of Washington. R.I. 4-14-1892. He was a clergyman of the M.E. Church ~~member~~ in the New England Southern Conference. She was a school twacher in Washington, R.I. and a descendent of Eleazer Whipple from England. He died Mar 23 1934.

Waldo Whipple Spear, b in Killingly, Conn 11-16-1896. Married Margaret Macgowan of Pawtucket R.I. 9-14-1920 He is a teacher of Chemistry and writer of Mag arts on Chemistry, Newark, N.J.

THE DUTCH SPIER LINE

Hendrick Jansen Spier and Madeline (Hansen) Spier this wife came from Amsterdam, Holland on the British West India Ship "Faith" arriving with a colony at New Amsterdam 1659, December. He is supposed to have had a brother whom we number 1B in this chart, whose name was Theunis Spier, but careless pronunciation made his name sound as if it were Theunis Pier. So many of his descendants continued to spell it Pier, notably Rev. Charles Sumner Pier D.D. of Marinette, Wis. The head of this family spelled the name Spier, Spiers, Speare and even the Holland form, Spieringh, but the correct form was probably Spier. The Dutch Lexicon says Spier is "The brawn of any part of the body, muscle". Most of this family now spell it Spear or Speer, many retain Spier. "Speer" in Dutch, as in German means, simply our Spear, or lance. Just how this Spier family got into Holland from Ireland or Scotland is not known but in the migrations of the "Pilgrims" some of the natives of Ireland and Scotland went to the continent.

Hendrick Jansen Spier did not live long after coming to America, we know he was dead before 1681. His widow married Aerste van der Bilt. He was a neighbor of Abraham de la Noy (Delano).

From an early New York history we learn that ::
 "At a council meeting held in Ft. William, Hendrick, 15th June 1674 (New Netherlands) On petition of Joest van der Linde, Hendrick Janse Spier, Hendrick de Backer and Herman Edwartse, requesting that each of them may be given and granted a piece of ground on Staten Island at the mouth of the Kill van Koll. Ordered :: Petitioners are deferred in the matter of their request to the time of the disposal of lands". On July 7th he was allowed the grant.

On Dec 10th 1691.

Hans Spier, son of above Hendrick, was a large land owner in Belleville, Horseneck, Newark etc.

Johannis Spier who married Magdalena Van Dyck on May 11 (1738)
 1746 (son of above Hans Spier) was the man who shot a British spy from the belfry of the Dutch church in Belleville, N.J.

From an early New York history we quote:

"At a council held in Ft. William, Hendrick 16th June 1674 (New Netherland) "On petition of Joost van der Linde, Hendrick Jense Spier (#1 Dutch), Hendrick de Bouter and Martin Liswarte, requesting that each of them may be given and granted a piece of ground on Staten Island at the mouth of the Kill van Kull-- Ordered: Petitioners are deferred in the matter of their request to the time of the disposal of land".

"#1 J Hendrick Jense Spier came from Amsterdam on the British West Indies Ship "Faith" in Dec. 1659. He bought land in New Amsterdam which he sold in 1664. In 1679 he bought large tract in Bergen County N.J. east side of Hackensack River. From here the Spiers went all over, especially in N.J." Waldo W. Spier Sr.

"#30 John Spier of New Jersey was a patriot of Belleville who shot a British spy from the bellry of the Dutch church on the bank of Passaic River. He had five sons in the army, some of whom spelled the name Spier. John Spier was born 1724 and died in Belleville N.J. 1797. Others of the family spelled it Spier and Spear.

"#104 Cornelius Spier was commissioned Captain in the 2nd Regiment, Essex Co. N.J. Militia-1777
