6. Bernard Joseph 7. John Emmett 8. Lawrence Francis
Invalid b. 1917

They had some other children who are buried in the Catholic Cemetery, North side of road, Russell, Kans. When they lived in Ireland a chest of silver came from Scotland or England which Maurice's mother could not fully identify and claim so they refused to accept it and returned it. Maurice says the right way to spell the name is S P E E R but the teacher in school changed the spelling and they kept the final "e".

"YQJ"

This family is believed to be related to the "BW line in this way: That this 1. James is the son of James and Mary (Patterson) Speer who lived in York Co. Pa at this time. The U.S. census 1790 gives James "Speers" as in Chanceford Twp, that he was a Revol Soldier b in York Co., Pa 1755. All of which corresponds. The "BW" line tradition is that he was at the surrender of Cornwallis..) No proof as yet in fall
