

Zachary Taylor Sr. of Lawrence, Virginia

Rapidan River

Zachary Taylor, a son of James Taylor who donated the above land to the Middle Church, was born in old Spotsylvania County (now Orange) and was married to Elizabeth Lee, the daughter of Hancock Lee of Westmoreland County.

In 1727 the father of Zachry gave him 1000 acres of land "at the Little Mountains and on ye south side Rapidan River in St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania County" This tract was located at the foot of the Great Mountains, beginning at the land of George Penn, adjoining Thomas Hamm and Henry Madison.
