

OFFICE SUPPLIES

IVAN ALLEN

LITHOGRAPHING-PRINTING

MARSHALL

STATIONERY-OFFICE FURNITURE

CO.

BLUE PRINTING-PHOTOSTATING
DRAWING MATERIALS

USE JOURNAL WANT ADS

J.P. ALLEN & CO.
Atlanta

Young and
Bold PLAID

Neat and nifty, that's a nutshell definition of this pretty and practical two-piece gingham suit! It's right for competent secretaries as well as young school girls. The skirt is pleated in front and plain in the back. The jacket is nicely fitted with a white pique overlay collar. Red, yellow, green, blue, brown. Sizes 9 to 15.

$10.98

Junior Shop, Second Floor

Miss Audrey Weeks Weds Lt. William Homer Avery Jr.

Travis Crawford Honored by Class

The members of the Pop Bible Class of the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school, of which Travis Crawford has been a member for a number of years, entertained at dinner Friday evening at a local cafeteria in his honor. Mr. Crawford is to be inducted into the Army this week.

A number were present, including the honor guest's wife, his mother, his brother, C. C. Crawford, teacher of the class, and Mrs. C. C. Crawford. Miss June Crawford and some dozen others.

The Pine Lake Woman's Club will meet Friday at 8 p. m. Mrs. Carwell, home demonstration agent, DeKalb County, will talk on dehydration. The public is invited to attend. Mrs. T. L. Rainwater is president.

Miss Audrey Weeks became the bride of Lieutenant William Homer Avery Jr. Saturday evening, May 29, at 6 p. m. at Grace Methodist Church. The Rev. J. S. Thraill, pastor, performed the ceremony. The altar was banked with palms and centered with a large Grecian urn of gladness. A center arch was made of fresh flowers and fern, under which the bride and groom stood. Tall white tapers burned in seven-branched candelabra and in two 13-candle arches. Clusters of gladioli tied with tulle marked the reserved pews. Music was presented by Miss Kathleen Eidson, soloist, and Mrs. Rowe Callaway, organist.

Lieutenant J. P. Ellington, Thomas Cowart, uncle of the bridegroom; Frank Thornton, Charlie Harrison, John Dunston, Lieutenant Frank Dennington were usher-groomsmen.

Mrs. John Dunston, the former Miss Tillie Forrester, was matron of honor, and she was given in a Vogue model of lavender made with a bouffant net skirt and tulle bodice styled with a low neckline with necklace and sleeves and tiny butterfly sleeves. She wore a large picture hat of matching net. Her bouquet was a round effect with pastel shades of garden flowers, tied with pink satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Misses Ida Longley, Louise Allen, Dorothy Anne Griffin and Dorothy Young, two being dressed in green and two in yellow, their dresses being fashioned like that of the matron of honor and carried similar bouquets tied with green and yellow satin ribbon, all wearing large matching hats of net.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, William Calvin Weeks. She was becomingly gowned in white slipper satin, styled with a petal-leaf sweetheart neckline, leg-o-mutton sleeves with points over the hand, a full skirt extending into a train, the dress having first been worn by Miss Tillie Forrester when she became the bride of John Dunston. The veil was made of illusion tulle, fashioned with a coronet of matching slipper satin made in sweetheart shape. The illusion formed pleats over the coronet mingled with pearlized orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a cascade bouquet made of white orchids and small white spray orchids and stephanotis with natural stephanotis foliage, having been sent from Miami, as a gift to the bride from her uncle, L. L. Lewis. Her only ornament was a string of pearls given to her by her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Stephens, who received them 23 years ago as a bride.

Mrs. Weeks chose for her daughter's wedding a powder-puff blue crepe trimmed with white ruching and white accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Avery's dress was a Nettie Rosenstein model of dawn gray silk chiffon with a molded shirred bodice. The deep sweetheart neckline was clustered with aurora pink fuchsia interlaced with spray orchids. A matching spray of orchids was worn in her hair and king purple accessories completed her costume. Mrs. G. P. Cowart, the bridegroom's mother, wore a full-length dinner gown with a black taffeta skirt. The exquisitely detailed waist was fashioned of handmade rose and point lace, the neckline following the pattern of the lace. Her corsage was of orchids.

The wedding party received their guests in the vestibule of the church immediately following the ceremony.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Avery left for a wedding trip to Florida, after which they will make their home in Wilmington, N. C., where Lieutenant Avery is to be stationed.

The bride chose as her traveling costume a brown and white summer suit with a burnt toast Milan straw hat, and brown and white accessories. She wore a corsage of purple orchids.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis, of Miami; Mrs. J. W. Stephens and Mrs. F. D. Peay, of Savannah; Mr. and Mrs. William Homer Avery and sons, Charles and Jack, Jacksonville Beach; Mrs. G. P. Cowart, Sanford, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sparks and daughter, Betty Anne, of Louisville, Ky.

SOCIETY IN BRIEF

Mrs. Douglas W. Winfree is ill at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C. Colonel Winfree is now stationed in New York.

Buck Chambers is convalescing at his home on Club Drive from a tonsilllectomy.

Lieutenant Rex P. Reedes, who has been spending a ten-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Reedes, of Hapeville, has returned to his station at Orlando, Florida.

Mrs. John Cherry, the former Miss Rebecca Wight, is at home for the duration with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wight. Mr. Cherry having been inducted into the Army last week.

Mrs. George B. Raine and Miss Mary Frances Raine are in Nashville, Tenn.

Major Charles T. Pottinger, U. S. A., of Aberdeen, Miss.; William S. Pottinger, Misses Lucille and Frances Pottinger, of Savannah, will be in Atlanta Wednesday to visit Mrs. Charles T. Pottinger on Rivers Road, and attend the graduation exercises of Stundford Pottinger, who receives his diploma from North Fulton High School on Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy Grove arrived Tuesday from Bradford Junior College in Massachusetts to spend the summer with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lon Grove, on Habersham-Road.

Lieutenant Wilmer C. Dutton Jr., U. S. Army, of Bradley Field, Conn., is spending a week's leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dutton, in Ansel Park.

Mrs. Nathaniel Bailey and Miss Mary Bailey are visiting Captain Bailey, U. S. A., in Philadelphia, Pa. During their absence little Ida Sadler Bailey is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie Sadler, on Thirteenth Street.

Miss Pinkie Peterson, of Princeton, N. J., is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Reynolds, at their home on The Prado.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Plummer have returned from Daytona Beach, Fla., where they spent the past month.

Mrs. A. M. Moore will arrive at an early date to spend the month of June with her family. She is a well-known writer, and on the editing staff of the Blue Network.

New $1 Size

DuBarry Face Pow
Favorite of the Success School

The face powder that DuBarry Success School graduates keep right on using. Definitely, they like that younger, radiant look DuBarry Face Powder gives to any type skin. Blended by experts; fine-spun, but clinging. Three months' average supply... $1.00

Plus Tax

RICH'S COSMETICS
STREET FLOOR

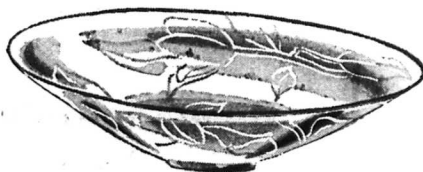

As Time Goes
She'll Cherish her Wedding from Rich's More and

She'll treasure and keep these years to come. Living in town (than likely) ... following her Station to Base ... she'll enjoys ... the gifts you choose. Selections are endless ... to you.

CHINA DEPARTMENT

Cranberry Martini Set ... for entertaining the Colonel —or just a drink among friends. Mixer, muddler and eight matching glasses are 10.00

Dorothy Thorpe Bowl ... modern cut glass in magnolia pattern. For a centerpiece, flower bowl or supper tray. Clear as crystal are 8.25

"Frosted Oak" cheese tray
moderns by Mary Wright, tradition. With cheese cov

Rye Highball Tumblers ... glasses with real rye point
with rye and green motif

Matching Rye Decanter

North Fulton PTA Pays Tribute to J. E. White

At the final meeting of the North Fulton P. T. A., Mrs. W. M. Robertson, president, who, with the other officers will serve for another year, gave a resume of the activities, and accomplishments of the P. T. A. The treasurer, Mrs. Stacy Howell, after giving her yearly report announced that the money left in the treasury this year was voted to be given to the Red Cross emergency dressing station at Buckhead.

Mrs. Joseph Regenstein presented Mrs. Robertson with silver hurricane lamps as a gift of appreciation from the executive board of the P. T. A. Ridley Nichol, president of the North Fulton student body, expressed the school's deep appreciation of J. E. White's inspired leadership and introduced Joan Coart, president of R. L. Hope students, who paid tribute to Mr. White and presented him with a basket of flowers; Walter Sullivan, president of Garden Hills students, who brought as a token of his school's esteem and