7. John Edward Chambliss, b. 1763, d. 1831 Albemarle Parish Register, Sussex Co., Va. "September 1, 1763, a son born to John and Sarah Chambliss and named John Edward."

John Chambliss, Jr., b. ca 1740 Sussex Co., Va., where the family seat was for a number of years. From the deeds, we learn that he was son of John Chambliss of Sussex Co., Va., and that he moved to a plantation in Cheraw dist., S. C., Marlboro Co., S. C., which his father owned. As per deeds in Sussex Co., some lands of John Chambliss, Sr. were sold to settle some accts. of John Chambliss, Jr. In 1756 and 1757 he was listed as member of Welsh Neck Baptist Church, on Great Pee Dee River, with one, Lucy Chambliss; also, John Littleton. 4/2/1773, he was gtd 250 acres in Craven Co., S. C., South Carolina Archives, V. 28, P. 587.

John Chambliss, Jr. d. before 1777, for his widow, Mary Chambliss, is found in Richmond Co., Ga. deeds of that date, also in 1781 deed Warren Co., Ga. The records of Welsh Neck Baptist Church in Cheraw dist., S. C., still show Mary Chambliss a member in 1778, and 7/24/1779, John Chambliss, baptised. She moved her membership to Long Creek Baptist Church in Warren Co., Ga., where "Mary Chambliss, Sr. and Mary Chambliss, Jr." are listed as members, 1799-1819, membership rolls, along with Littleton and Christopher Chambliss. Mary Chambliss, Sr. would be wife of John Chambliss, decd. Mary, Jr. would be the dau-in-law of Mary, Sr., the w. of Zachariah Chambliss. Mary, Sr. was prob. a dau. of Savege and Ann Littleton of Richmond Co., Ga., abt. 1782. The records on Littletons are precarious, but they came from Accomac Co., Va., thru Cheraw dist, S. C., into Richmond Co., Ga. The above church record, taken from Warren County History by Wilheit, V. 2, gives death date of Mary Chambliss as 10/14/1817. However, the Bible of Littleton Chambliss, her son, in possession of Charles Owen Smith of Moultrie, Ga., lists her death as 9/15/1813.
