

James Hogan, LWT dtd 1793, Anson Co., N. C., naming w., Silence and children: David, Elijah, William, James, Edmund, Elizabeth Pyle, Nannie Lee and Sarah Pyle. Issue:

I. David Hogan, listed 1790 Orange Co. N. C. Census.

II. Elijah Hogan, b. Anson Co. N. C., came to Ga. with his bros., William, James and Edmund before 1790, settling in Wilkinson Co. Listed 1820-30 Wilkinson Co. Census; Ensign, Wilkinson, 1820-21; Major, 1823-30. History of Wilkinson County by Victor Davidson, P. 142: "...Until April 1806 the only means of defense against the indians was the garrison at Ft. Wilkinson and the rifles of the settlers...Family tradition tells that the home of Major Elijah Hogan, whose plantation was near Pleasant Plains Church and adjacent to the old indian boundary line, was the place where all the families of that section would gather when indian alarms were given..." P. 388: "Early member of the Church of Pleasant Plains...was Elijah Hogan." Page 196: [1819] "The day the first steamboat arrived, hundreds of people flocked to the lands...Recollections handed down to the writer is that Susan Hogan, sister of Elijah Hogan, later wife of William Smith, was present..." Page 602: "The Ryes were early settlers of the county, Ambrose being a brother and Sarah [married Elijah Hogan], being a sister of John." Further, from above history, the heirs of Elijah Hogan were: Susannah, Sarah J., Eliza F., Griffin, E. Columbus, David M. D., Elijah C., John G. R., John D. Vann, James Exum for Frances and Benjamin, Linche B. Porter, John E. Hardie for Susannah and Richard T. Porter. Elijah Hogan was decd by 1840. The LWT of John G. R. Hogan dtd 3/8/1858 Wilkinson Co. naming his wife Mariah; he m. Mariah Bulloch 1848 Wilkinson Co. Ga.

III. William Hogan, b. Anson Co. N. C. 1799 deed, Jefferson Co. Ga., William Hogan to Rise Webb, 175 acres Lamberts Creek, bounded e. by John Rogers, DB E, P. 19-20. /s/ William and Betsy Hogan.

IV. James Hogan, listed 1802 Jefferson Co. tax digest; 1820 Jefferson Co. Census. Sau, Mary Hogan, b. 1790 Jefferson Co. Ga. m. John Chestnut Sumner of Emanuel Co. Ga.

V. Griffin Hogan.

VI. Edmund Hogan, b. Anson Co. N. C., drew 1805 Ga. Land Lottery, Washington Co. 1806-7, Sheriff, Wilkinson Co.

VII. Susan Hogan m. William Smith.

William Hogan of Lincoln Co. m. Sarah Helen Curry, buried Hogan family cemetery near old Agnes School site, Lincoln Co. Ga. His Bible filed Ga. State Archives, Atlanta. Ga. Issue:

I. James Robert Hogan, b. 1800, d. 1834 m. Elizabeth Huguley.

II. Griffin Hogan m. Mary Gibson, listed 1820 Laurens Co. Census.

III. John Hogan, listed 1820 Jackson Co. Census.

IV. William Hogan, Jr., settled at Hogansville, Ga.

V. Shadrack Hogan, m. Elizabeth Gibson, listed 1820 Jackson Co. Census.

VI. Sarah Elizabeth Hogan m. Allen K. Curry, moved to Ala.