Additions by Jeannette Holland Austin

This is my own personal family, and although I have traced it for years, am dissatisfied with the results. The only certain lineage which will be presented her begins with Richard Stegall. There is a general consensus that Richard was a son of George Stegall, Jr. of Amelia, Brunswick and Lunenburg Counties, Virginia. Until I have the proof of this, it will not be recorded here.

Richard Stegall was born 4 Jul 1754 in Virginia, died 28 Jul 1836 Pickens Co., S. C. He sold his land on the Indian River in Virginia to Aaron Harbour and removed to Pickens Co., S. C. in 1793 where he purchased 2,000 acres of land. I examined every scrap of paper I could find in Pickens County. He died intestate. Letters of Administration were issued to William Holcombe on 4 Jan 1836 in Pickens District, S. C. A Statement of Expenditures was rendered by William Holcombe, Administrator, from 4 Jan 1836 to 20 Mar 1837.

He was married three times. 1st, to Betsy Hensley.

A. Emsley Stegall was b. Pickens Co., S. C., died 25 Nov 1888 in Emerson, Ga, Walker Co. He was educated in the "Old Field Schools", later attending high school in Cartersville. On his 20th birthday, he enlisted in the 14th Ga. Inf. (15 June) and was sent to Virginia where he fought in the Seven Days' Battle around Richmond. He was discharged from a Richmond Hospital due to organic trouble. In the Fall of 1863 he served as a brakeman with the old Western and Atlantic Railroad until Sherman got near Atlanta (1864). Then, went to Columbus and served with the Muscogee R. R., being conductor of freight trains until the latter part of 1865. When the US Government quit operating the W. & A. R. R., turning it back to the State, he was one of the first conductors to run a train from Atlanta to Chattanooga. He resided on a little farm one mile south of the Tennessee line, at Roswell. He married Mrs. Carrie Murphy.
