Judge Richard Johnson

Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Judge: I return application of J. J. Forester with the following explanation as to his forfeiture. You will see in my Certificate that I state that his return of property consists mostly of household goods. He has nothing whatever, but his household goods, and I doubt if they are worth exceeding twenty dollars. He did have an old worn-out wagon, one horse wagon of that kind and an old buggy at the time he gave in his tax, which you would consider worthless. He has nothing at all to live on. So very old and feeble and almost lost his eyesight. I know his condition personally and he is certainly an object of Charity.
I would be glad if you could see your way to approve his application. You will please excuse me for trespassing on your time and patience
in this matter.

NOTES.

In order to avoid unnecessary delays to applicants, and to enable all parties interested to understand the laws governing the payment of allowances to soldiers, as well as the rules adopted by the Government touching the payment of allowances, the following suggestions are made:

1. If an applicant has been wounded, the description of the wound should be carefully and fully set forth by applicant and physician, and followed by a plain statement of facts showing the extent of the disability. If applicant claims disability from disease contracted in the service, a full and carefully stated history of the disease should be given, tracing the disability by positive proofs to the service.
2. The law makes no allowance for an arm or leg, unless the arm or leg has been rendered substantially and permanently useless.
3. It will not answer to say that an arm is "substantially useless for ordinary purposes of life, etc." There is no qualification to the clause of the Act in reference to the arm or leg; but the limb must for all purposes be "substantially and essentially useless."
4. If the applicant is a wounded leg, it would seem to be a fair construction of the Act, and the words above quoted, to say that a wounded leg is "substantially and essentially useless," as to require the constant use of crutch or stick.
5. If papers are returned for correction, and amendments are added to any of the affidavits, the amendments must be made under oath before an officer, and the proofs must show that the amendments have been made.
6. Every application must be certified by the Ordinary of the county of the residence of the applicant. The certificate of any other will not be received in any case.

The Ordinaries of the several counties are specially requested to call the attention of the physicians and applicants to these points.
