INSTRUCTIONS:

1st. For use in all cases where pensioner died after January 1st, had not been out of State longer than twelve months, and died without owning sufficient property to pay such expenses. The widow of a soldier, if she is living, has prior claim over these expenses, and must make application on yellow blank.
2nd. Require those claiming accounts for expenses of last illness, and expenses of funeral, to make out their account in fully itemized form, giving each item and the value of it, and each date.
3rd. Running accounts cannot be paid—only those connected with the last illness, just before death when pensioner grew worse to die.
4th. Each account must be sworn to before the Ordinary, and in the following form: (Do not use the terms: "just, true, due, unpaid," etc.)
"The above and foregoing account is rendered for services in the last illness (or for funeral expenses, as the case may be) of....., who died without owning sufficient property to pay this bill."

7th. The Ordinary signs pay-roll as Ordinary, for the pension and then disburses the money himself and takes receipts.
8th. Accept no bills for nursing until you write the Pension Office, stating the circumstances in very great detail. Pensioner's children, or children-in-law, must not charge the State for doing only what the law and common humanity demand of them.
9th. Return this application, and attached bills, with your final settlement to the Pension Office.
10th. Ordinary should see that the back of this blank, when folded, is filed out.
11th. Funeral expenses of deceased "new" pensioners covering all or part of both the 1920 and 1921 pensions require two separate sets of this voucher and bills—one set to be filed in the Pension Office with the pension papers of each year.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1st. This form is for widows of Service and Disabled Soldier pensioners, who died after November 1st. If pensioner died after January 1st, leaving dependent children but no widow, their guardian may use this form in their behalf.

2nd. Proof of marriage must be made, though the date of marriage need not be proven, it being only necessary to prove that pensioner and widow were living together as husband and wife at the time of death.

3rd. Do not use the enormously large form of marriage certificate in common vogue throughout the State, suitable only for framing. Such certificate is entirely too bulky for use in any pension application. A plain certificate written on the back of the copy of marriage license is the proper thing.

4th. The Ordinary should examine the blank after it is filled in, and see that everything is fully and correctly completed, and the seals affixed, and that back of application, when folded, is filled in.

5th. Pay out no money on this application until approved in the Pension Department and returned to you as your authority to make the payment.

6th. Return this application with your final settlement to the Pension Department.

7th. The widow or person holding her proper power-of-attorney receipts for this pension by signing name, as widow, opposite the name of husband on the soldier pay roll.

One entering between the fifth and sixth rib cutting away a portion of the fifth rib passing through the lung and coming out between the sixth and seventh dorsal vertebra. Another in the left hip about one and a half inches from the joint passing through and destroying a part of the sacrum bones which has produced partial paralysis and liable at any time to cause complete paralysis. The third in left leg also the bullet having entered about half way between hip and knee joint striking the bone and ranging downward near the knee joint where it was cut out. This person Miles H. INSTRUCTIONS:

1st. Proof of marriage must be made.
2nd. Do not use the enormously large form of marriage certificate in common vogue throughout the State, suitable only for framing. Such certificate is entirely too bulky for use in any pension application. A plain certificate written on the back of the copy of marriage license is the proper thing.
3rd. The Ordinary should examine the blank after it is filled in, and see that everything is fully and correctly completed, and the seals affixed, and that back of application, when folded, is filled in.
4th. Pay out no money on this application until approved in the Pension Department and returned to you as your authority to make the payment.
5th. Return this application with your final settlement to the Pension Department.
6th. The widow or person holding her proper power-of-attorney receipts for this pension by signing name, as widow, opposite the name of husband on the soldier pay roll.
7th. Only the one pension is covered by this application. Take another application, on the white blank, to admit widow to rolls in her own right.

CLARK HOWELL
EDITOR & GENERAL MANAGER.

ATLANTA, GA., July 2nd 1931

Honorable John J. Hurt,
Commissioner of Pensions,
State Capitol,
Atlanta, Ga.

My Dear General:

This is to certify that I was intimately acquainted with Colonel Edward Young Clarke, long a co-partner and Editor in-chief of the Atlanta Constitution, and served under him as as of his Editorial Department staff.

I know personally that he was a devoted and gallant Confederate officer, and was a member of the escort of troops who accompanied President Jefferson Davis as far as Washington, Ga. where the cabinet was disbanded, and the accopanying troops with the exception of a small body guard, were released to find their way to their homes as best they might. You may well remember that at that time there few facilities for recording discharges and the procuring of papers to testify to the record of any of that devoted body of men.

Colonel Clarke was a member of one of the first Confederate veterans organized here under the leadership of General John B. Gordon.

There can be no question at all about his splendid services as a Confederate officer; and I am persuaded that you knew him personally when he was the Editor of the Constitution, and that there can be no question in your mind that he is entitled to full recognition for his dependent widow, by the Pension Department.

With my most cordial esteem and good wishes, I am,

Your faithful friend.

JOHN J. HUNT
COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS

Atlanta

August 14th, 1931.

Hon. Francis W. Clarke,
C/o Atlanta Constitution,
Atlanta, Georgia.

Dear Mr. Clarke:

Your father was a member of the military escort of the President of the Confederate States, which escort was disbanded at the last convening of the Confederate Cabinet, held at Washington, Georgia. It appears that no official record of the paroles granted on that occasion has been preserved. It is necessary, under the pension law, to account for the soldier until the end of the War before he, or his surviving widow, may be admitted to the rolls.

Doctor Small's letter which accompanied your mother's application, seems to supply, very perfectly, the missing link in the testimony as to the continuation of your father's service until the end of the War, and it would doubtless be very helpful to your mother in this connection, were it not for the requirement of law that all testimony be submitted in the form of an affidavit.

I feel quite sure, of course, that Doctor Small will be glad to acknowledge his signature to the letter before a Notary Public, and, this apparently trifling technicality complaied with, the paper can be accepted as an amendment to the application.

Please return the letter I am enclosing as soon as convenient.

With kindest personal regards, and assuring you of my desire to serve you at any time,

Your friend,

W. Sam Askew.

JOHN J. HUNT
COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS

September 11th, 1931.

Judge Thomas H. Jeffries,
Ordinary, Fulton County,
Atlanta, Georgia.

Dear Judge:

IN RE: Application for pension for Mrs. Nora Harrison Clarke, widow of Edward Y. Clarke:

I have approved this application, this approval to take effect on and after January 1st, 1932. The law fixes November 1st as the last date on which applications for pension may be filed in the Pension Department to be passed upon for the rolls of the following year. This application was filed July 31, 1931.

The marriage is proven, by Certificate, to have taken placein the year 1876.

The approval is based upon the following record of Confederate military service, as preserved in the office of The Adjutant-General of the United States:

"Edward Y. Clarke, appointed Adjutant, 15th Georgia Regiment, Cavalry (originally 16th Battalion, Cavalry), May 14, 1862; appointed Major, P. A. C. S., from State of Georgia and assigned to this (16th) Battalion, September 5, 1863. Under date April 24, 1865, J. C. Vaughn, Brigadier-General, requested Clarke's appointment to Lieutenant-Colonelcy of 15th Regiment, Georgia Cavalry, but no record of appointment found."

Failure to receive the last appointment mentioned, for which request had been made, was due to the official closing of the War, April 26, 1865.

The foregoing official record is supplemented by the affidavit of Dr. Sam W. Small, to the effect that Clarke was a member of the escort of Troops who accompanied President Jefferson Davis as far as Washington, Georgia, where the Confederate Cabinet was disbanded, and said escort, with the exception of a small bodyguard, were released to find their way to their homes as best they could.

Please make proper record hereof in your office, as required by law.

Very truly yours,

John J. Hunt

NOTES.

1. If an applicant has been wounded, the description of the wound should be carefully and fully set forth by applicant and physician, and followed by a plain statement of fact showing the extent of the disability. If applicant claims disability from disease contracted in the service, a full and carefully stated history of the disease should be given, tracing the disability by positive proofs to the service.
2. The law makes no allowance for an arm or leg, unless the arm or leg has been rendered substantially and essentially useless.
3. It will not answer to say that an arm is "substantially useless for ordinary pursuits of life, etc." There is no qualification to the clause of the Act in reference to the arm or leg, but the limb must for all purposes be "substantially and essentially useless."
4. If the application is for a wounded leg, it would seem to be a fair construction of the Act, and the words above quoted, to say that unless the injury is such as to require the constant use of crutch or stick, that the leg is not "substantially and essentially useless."
5. If application is for loss of fingers or toes the proofs must be made to show the number, and points where amputated.
6. If papers are returned for correction, and amendments are added to any of the affidavits, the amendments must be made under oath before an officer, and the proofs must show that the amendments have been duly sworn to.
7. Every application must be certified by the Ordinary of the county of the residence of the applicant. The certificate of any other will not be received in any case.

and for the polite and courteous manner in which you have showed my
wife Mrs Cobb. I now
ask you to do me one favor
by telling those who have
old claims for pensions
in your office for amendment
that they are there by your courtesy and desire to procure sufficient evidence to grant them a pension. Mrs Martha Carroll's application has been with you for two years
while you and I have done
all we could to procure evidence about "Weasers" But

3

The last time which was last Spring you told me you was making every effort possible to get the evidence and that the Ordinary of Paulding County had promised to aid you in the matter. I have not had nor seen the application since they were filed the last time in your office, I have no right to them nor no use for them and Mrs Carroll continues to worry me about them intimating that I have the papers, You know I have not had them at all I am very nervous and sensitive

4

She claims that Mr Carrolls Captain and his brother who served with him (Carroll) are drawing pensions and made affidavits for her. I know not. If so they are there with the papers and the question is with you as to the evidence in the case of Mrs Carroll Her brother and I worked for two or three years and finally give up and left the question with you which was right and we knew that you would ~~decend~~ decide according to law and evidence, As I cannot see you and cannot write or read

5

I beg of you to read this Communication or let Mrs Cobb read it for me to you as I have no more to do with the case nor can I have, wishing you much peace and success in your ardaas duties which I know are very trying

Very Respt
