He married CHARITY PARKS Abt. 1788 in Wilkes County, N.C., daughter of THOMAS PARKS and SARAH CARRINGER. She was born Abt. 1772 in Wilkes Co., NC, and died Aft. 1843 in Carroll County, Ga..

Notes for REV. RICHARD CHANDLER:

Proof of marriage and locations:

Marriage recorded in Wilkes Co., NC. Charity Parks is named in her father's Estate Land Transaction: "Richard Chandler and Charity Chandler his wife of Franklin Co., Ga." Source: Wilkes Co., NC Book J Page 610 dated 1820. Copy of Power of Attorney Document.

Note: Only one of Richard's children stated on the 1880 census that his father was born in Ireland (that was Linsey). Three others stated he was born in North Carolina (all stated their mother was born in North Carolina). Daughter Matilda stated on 1880 census that her father was born in Virginia.

Proof that Richard was probably born in Virginia:

(Will Book Albemarle Co., VA, Bk 2, pg 101-106; E. M. Parks Diary: "Notable Southern Families by Zella Armstrong, pg. 111-1; Land Deed, Richmond Co., Va, B2, pg 2 and Orange County, Virginia, Deed Book 4, pg. 352; Book 6, pg 183 and Orange County, VA, Court Order Book 2, pg.402) Co, VA.

Note: Richard bought land in 1813 in Franklin Co. from Joseph and Nancy Ann Turman Chandler (probably his uncle)...400 acres on Bear Creek.

He is found on the 1830 Franklin Co., Ga. census, page 37 with one male between the age of 10/15, 2 males between the age of 15/20, 2 males between the age of 20/30, and one male between the age of 60/70, one female between the age of 60/70. Some of the children had already married and left home by 1830.

Tallapoosa Primitive Baptist Church Minutes:

24 Jan. 1835 received by letter Richard Chandler and Charity his wife, also Major L. Chandler, their son. This is proof that our Richard came to Carroll County from Franklin with son Major L. Chandler, etc. Ambrose, his son, did not move to Carroll County until after 1843.

Minutes of 100th Annual Session at the New Hope Primitive Baptist Association listed as a Minister in Macedonia Church in 1840(P.7) Richard Chandler. I can find no record of two Richard Chandlers living at the same time in Carroll County, Ga. so our Richard must have tried preaching for a time.

having died before completing claim, Jan. 8, 1885. Widow's service pension #3551 states that Ambrose died April 9, 1868, and that he was about 60 years of age. Judge of Carroll County, Ga. states that Jerusha Chandler appeared before him and stated that her husband served in the Cherokee Indian War and enlisted at Franklin Ga. Carnesville under the name Ambrose Chandler as a Private in Company commanded by Capt. Wm. Cleaveland in regiment of Ga., Militia. commanded by Col. Turk.. She thinks on or about 15 of May 1838 a term of three months, and was discharged at New Town; she thinks on 15 Sept. 1838. At the time of entering service claimed her said husband was 20 or 25 years of age, five feet 11 inches with dark gray eyes, black hair, dark complexion, occupation a farmer. I don't know what county he was born in but he was born in North Carolina. After leaving the service he resided at Franklin Co., Ga 15 years with his father Richard, and at Carroll Co., Ga. 23 years. She married him 4 May 1827 at Franklin Co., Ga. by Charles Jenkins, JP, under the name Jerusha White. Stated that she has not been married previously, that her said husband died at Carrollton on April 1868. She thinks he was about 60 years of age at that time.

Note on Claim: "Widow Jerusha Chandler has gone to the realm of the far away land no devil can ever molest her, with a crown on her head and a harp in her hand. God bless her she is dead," Carrollton Oct. 26, 1894

G. W. Merrell, Atty: If the above named claimant has gone to heaven from which is said no citizen of the better land, she no longer cares for Uncle Sam's gold so it only remains for her friends to be told that her claim is rejected and filed with the Interior Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D.C. Oct. 20, 1894

Gentlemen, the above named claimant's family and friends should be advised that her husband's name could be found on the rolls of Captain Cleaveland's Company and that no further action can be taken until the correct service of Ambrose Chandler can be furnished.

Notes for THOMAS HIRAM KING:

Thomas was the son of Benjamin King and Mary Burson. Thomas Hiram King enlisted on March 4, 1862 in Carrollton, GA, as a Private in Co. "H", 41st Reg. GA, Volunteer Infantry, also known as "The Wool Hat Boys" with his father Benjamin King. He was wounded, permanently disabled and captured at Vicksburg, MS, on 4 Jul 1863, paroled there July 16, 1863. Roll for 31 December 1863, last on file, shows him absent and sick. Pension records show he contracted rheumatism July 1863 and was furloughed for thirty days which extended until the close of the war. An affidavit submitted by William McMichael as a witness for Matilda contained the data that he served with Thomas and that Thomas did not come back into service after Vicksburg fell. He stayed at home because he was disabled from rheumatism and that when he had seen Thomas, he was on crutches. He never recovered. On June 15 1900, they were enumerated in Smithfield, Carroll County, Ga. Thomas died in 1904 and his wife Matilda died in 1910.

Matilda's pension application (dated March 2, 1904) stated that she lived in Barge, Carroll County, Ga. and that she had a weak heart, rheumatism, general disability and feebleness. She lived with her children who were supporting her. Her only property was household goods worth about $30-$40. It was signed March 2, 1904. Her witnesses were: William McMichael and her physicians W.W. and W. L. Pitts.

The Pension records show that Matilda was to get a pension of $60 per year, from 1906 to 1910. Carroll County Cemetery records show her death as August 18, 1905. The 1900 census records list 10 of 12 children, all born in Carroll County. She has not been found on the 1910 census.

Clerissa Matilda Charity Chandler was the daughter of Ambrose and Jerusha White Chandler and the sister of William W. Chandler who died in the Civil War in Winchester, Virginia. She also lost her father-in-law, Benjamin King, in the war. The Chandlers and Kings of Carroll County, Ga. were hit hard by the Civil War.

Was glad to hear you had good crops and that our crops are small at this time of the year. We are awful dry out here, haven't had any rain in 8 weeks til yesterday. We had a rite good rain but not near enough I think. We will have more soon. I thought this morning we would have more today but I believe it will miss us today but I hope it will come tomorrow and I will tell you corn is nearly rwind. Well Johnny cousin Tom Chandler was out here 2 weeks ago. It was not Uncle Lindsey's Tom. It was Uncle Park's Tom. He said me and you and him was all of the boys that are living now and he said tell you to write to him at Bremen, Ga. His address is T. B. Chandler, Bremen, Ga. He is a Primitive Baptist Preacher and he is a good one too. He said he sure would love to see you. He is 11 years and 2 months older than I am and he is getting a little feeble as well as myself. Sometimes I can make it alright and then I am down and out. If nothing happens we will go to Georgia the second Sunday in August to a reunion and I wish you could be there. Wish you were here to go with us. We are both kin and there is lots we never say. Well I have wrote all I can think of. I will close for this time. Write soon and all the news as ever. Your brother, Levi Chandler
