

LIETNER/LIGHTNER of Newberry County, South Carolina

Christopher Lightner was born ca 1710, probably Austria, died after 1769 in South Carolina. He lived in Pennsylvania for a time, because he was listed on the 1758 Lancaster County Tax List, in the Leacock Township. He must have removed to South Carolina after that, because, on 17 August 1769, he witnessed the LWT of George Preeler, butcher, in Charles Town, South Carolina.

Newberry County, South Carolina Historical and Genealogical:
"Christopher Leitner, born about 1710, died about 1768, married before coming to the Dutch Fork in Newberry County, South Carolina as a petition for bounty grant of 250 acres on Crims Creek dated 2 October 1752 indicates he had a wife and three children. Another grant for 100 acres on Second Creek made 12 February 1755. 20 March 1762, his son Michael, signed a bounty grant which shows that his father died between 1762 and 1769. Shares of property were divided between his sons, John and Michael; and since there was another child who may have died before that date or others who were daughters already provided for, only the two dividend shares were given to the grant."
