

Nuncupative Will

Georgia (We Stephen Jackson Jackson, and Andrew B Jackson were present at the bedside of Charles Jackson late of said County who during his last illness on the fifteenth day of April Eightyfour hundred and forty eight and on said day while in the perfect possession of his mental faculties, and called upon us to remember and take notice that in the event he should die of his then sickness, he wished and desired us to understand That he (Willed and declared as his last Will, that all his just debts be first paid, and that one or two of his slaves, his crop of Cotton then on hand, his Cotton Gins, and his two hand Waggons be sold for the purpose of paying his debts, and that his boy Willis also be sold if it should be deemed necessary by his Executors, and after the payment of his debts he desired that his Estate Real and Personal be kept together and used and worked for the benefit and support of his family and the educating of his Children, and whenever it should become necessary to have a division he desired that his Wife should have two thirds of his Estate absolutely and that his Children each receive half as much as his Wife.
 And that he desired his brother William Jackson and his Cousin Adam Jackson to act as his Executors to carry out his Will.

after which to wit on the twenty first of April Eighteen Hundred and forty eight he died,
