my Executors to have as much as possible of stock as they may consider best for the youngest child because of age as also enough to provide at his death as all the children of my Wife provided that across before the youngest child because of age as also enough to the share of his children. I with my executors of the testament, for both the matter of the estate and upon the occurrence of either of the said events to divide the said estate of my Wife of description most specifically that first clause of my Will and most truly integrate into mind equal parts shares or portions But as my Executors should divide and wish that if my Executors should divide at distribution between my youngest child because of age enough to provide for his children as all the children of my Wife that they should be provided for that interest of my Wife to sufficient to the education of my children for both of the said shares until they arrive respectively of lawful age for their said respective shares to be equally divided among my Executors
