I, Samuel Sevin of the State of Georgia do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the last will and testament of Samuel Sevin, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the County of Clayton, Georgia.

- 1st I desire that at my death all my just debts shall be paid by my Executor hereinafter appointed.
- 2nd I give and bequeath to my adopted son James Sevin, my home place including what I own of the Duffey place, my home place being one hundred acres, the Duffey place being twenty-five acres, more or less.
- 3rd I give to Mary Jenkins, Fifty acres of land, on the South side of the place known as the 1st Park place.
- 4th I give to Miller Jenkins the Fifty acres he now occupies, and also five acres of woodland land lying West of the said fifty.
- 5th I bequeath the rents of the remainder of the land I now own, to my beloved wife, Joyce Sevin, who I desire shall have the said rents during her natural life.
- I desire that my Executor shall see that she shall have every thing that will add to her comfort during life.
- 6th I give to Esther Gilliam the sum of Four Hundred and Fifty Dollars, when cash she prefers I give her in lieu of said money. The house and lot in the town of Cornsboro, joining the lot of Dr. McNamee.
- 7th I give to my adopted son all my books.
- 8th I leave the remainder of my property undisposed of, and request that those to whom I have bequeathed the same shall not sell the same.
- 9th I appoint my adopted son, James Sevin as Executor of this my last will and testament.

Feb 3rd 1892.
