

State of Georgia Effingham County 26. Octob^r 1793

Caveat; (Tried) Tried Before Christian Treutlin J.P. and Ab^m Kavot. Register of Probate the Day above mentioned agreeable to the Caveat Entered the 9th October 1793.

Jesse Mixson

Robert Kelly

Tried M^r Mixson's Reason for Caveating M^r Kelly was as there, that he Did not think M^r Kelly would or Could Do the Heirs Justice as they were all of Age and as they had all of them Received the best part, or part of the Said Estate of Wintworth Webb agreeable to his will and which M^r Kelly was a Coequal Heir & had Rec^d his part Equal to the Rest.

M^r Mixson produced a Copy of M^r Wintworth Webb will also an Arbitration Bond Signed by five persons each of them Coequal Heirs, to abide by the Arbitration of the Persons therein Named, & under the penalty of £500.

Signed by, Jesse Mixson

M^r Kelly opposing nothing

W^m Cook

Benj^a Cook

Robert Kelly

Rachel Phillips

Opinion

Is as there is a will, there Can't be Letters granted to M^r Rob^t Kelly & as part has been Divided by Consent of each party.

Christⁿ Treutlin J.P.

Ab^m Kavot. R.P. & C.

Same Day

M^r Rob^t Kelly not being pleased with the Opinion or Verdict, therefore prays for an appeal to the Superior Court Neph, & there to be Tried.

Ab^m Kavot. R.P. & C.