the Referees J C Harris, Green W Smith & B Houston appointed by the Superior Court, for the purpose of distributing the Assets now in hand under a Decree of the Court. It is Determined that the Note held by the Adm'r. agt. Kitty Alston be set off against the demand in favor of Thos. H Banks, vs the Estate of Clark, & the said Kitty deceased, to the amt of the said Kitty's note, It is determined that the Amt. of a Judgt. against Wm. M Yate, Isaac M Yate, & Jesse L Yate, the latter not served - that in as much as the Adm'r took the said Isaac M & Jesse L, as Security upon said demand at the time thereof, the said Security was considered amply good But proving to be insolvent afterwards, and it appearing that the said Adm'r. has used all lawful means to Collect the same & having been unable to do so - that he shall not be chargable, as no laches appear on his part — the amount of the Assets to be found to be $1538.27 which he have appointed Next apart to the several Creditors of Equal grade given under our hands this 1st Sept. 1830
