In the name of God Amen.'

I, James Lewis Adams, of the County of Henry, and State of Georgia, mindful that life is uncertain, and death certain; and being of sound and disposing mind, and memory, in order, to make for my wife and for our children, the best provision of which I am capable, with the portion of this world's goods & effects with which, my Heavenly Father has blessed or may hereafter bless me, up to the time of my death, do hereby make and execute, this my last Will and testament, hereby expressly revoking, all others by me at any time heretofore made—

Item first, Commending my Soul to God who gave and redeemed it, through Jesus, the Christ, our Lord, and Savior, I give my body to be decently disposed of, in Christian burial,

Item Second— I will and desire, that all my just debts, and my funeral expenses be paid out of my Estate.—

Item third— Cherishing, for my dear wife, Martha Adams, the most devoted love and affection, and having perfect confidence in her judgment and sense of justice, as well as, in her maternal affections for our dear children, whom I leave in her charge, and keeping, under Our Heavenly Father, I do hereby, bequeath and devise, after the payment, of my said debts and funeral expenses, all the rest and residue of my estate, which I, at the time of my death, may have in rightful possession, in right of return, or in right of possession, unto my beloved wife, Martha Adams, and her heirs, in fee simple absolute, of whatever consisting & wherever located—

Item fourth— Inasmuch, as my Executrix hereinafter named, is the Sole Legatee and devisee under this my last Will & testament, it is my Will and earnest desire, that She be not required to give bond of any kind as such Executrix, but allowed to manage my Estate in her own way, and with as little expense as possible to the estate, and with as little trouble to her as possible

In the name of God Amen,

I, David Knott of said State and County, being of sound & disposing mind, do make publish and declare this my last Will & Testament, hereby re king & setting aside any and all others. Heretofore m by me —

Item 1st. My soul I commit to Almighty God in whose loving Mercy, through the atone ments of Jesus Christ, I there record my unwavering trust & faith.

Item 2nd. I desire that my body be buried, in in a decent & Christian like way.

Item 3rd. I nominate & appoint my beloved wi with whom I have long lived in love & happine and in whose judgment, I have great confidenc and in whose Managerial Ability, I unhesitatin confide, Executrix to this my last Will & Testament. also appoint my truly Son-in-law Cyrenus H. Mc and my beloved Son James E. Knott Co-Executors, if they the said C. H. McGibbon & James E. Knott not from any cause qualify as such at the probat this Will, I distinctly express my wish, that the Ord allow them to do so. At any time in the future, t either or both of them appear and desire so to do.
I appoint my wife with the following careful studied, delegated powers, and earnestly ask the Courts See that there is no restraint upon h or restrictions upon her powers. I direct that at death, She proceed to probate this Will, that t Ordinary record the same, and issue to her Let Testamentary, I distinctly state and direct that + warrant of Appraisement be issued by the Ordi and that my wife shall make no Appraisement and in no event do so as to my household & k furniture or any thing pertaining to my house.
+ direct that there shall be no sale Bills or Amo Returns, made by her, and at least as to my lee at law, She shall in no way or manner be ac
+ able to them for any of her acting & doings
Executrix at any time —

Item 4th- I direct the early payment of my debts
To accomplish this, much is left to the discretion of my wife, I do not restrain her right to Dower, I do not restrict the years support contemplated by Statutes of Georgia.. In order to pay my debts, to discharge any obligation of her own contraction, or any obligation that may rest upon her, at any time- I direct that She Sell any property, or such portions thereof, either publickly or privately, upon such terms, as She may elect, without application to Courts for leave or orders to sell, and make good and Sufficient titles to same, as fully and perfectly, as I could make if in life

Item 5th-

My object I trust is clearly seen- I give and bequeath to my beloved wife all my property, real and personal, and I desire to have unrestricted control of & Management of same during her natural or civil life. With it I wish her to help maintain and educate my Children just as She thinks proper. My Child or Children Shall have no right to demand any portion of my Estate, or restrict the power of my wife during her life-

If as they (my child or children) attain their majority or marry, my wife elect to discreetly advance them property or money. She can do so, this is not compelable.- My wife Shall have the right to manage every thing, just as She thinks best,- If my said Son James A. and my Son-in-law, C. A. McGibbon, fail to qualify or until they do so, I request them to aid my wife by consultation and advice, and in any manner that She may wish-

Item 6th

At the death of my wife, if they Shall not do so before, I request my said Son and Son-in-law, one or both of them to qualify as Executors or Executors- I also direct at the death of my wife, that the property and proceeds hereof bequeathed or remaining on hand Shall be sold
