of Mark Turner Sr. dec^d before his death which occurred next day. The said Turner having been mortally wounded by falling out of a wagon.
A few hours before his death in perfect possession of his mental faculties as appeared to us said Mark Turner called upon the by standers & his children to keep quiet & take notice of what he was about to say. When he said he wanted D. S. Turner to attend to his matter & support Dussella (meaning his the said Mark's wife) during her life & then for his son (D. S. Turner) to mind of his estate. He further said that he wanted his son to sell off his perishable property & after paying his debts to support Dussella for the rest of her life. — That he had rented out his land to the boys & he wanted them to keep it the present year & that here after during his wife's life time he wanted the land rented out yearly & rent proceeds applied to support his wife after her death that he wanted the land sold & divided among his children & that they must not forget little Paton (meaning his grandchild) in the division.
