Georgea } Personally appeared in Court the Randolph } with Crabs Champion & S. Shagles County } Mary Crall who being duly sworn saith that James Crall late of said County died on the 18th day of February without leaving any written will, but one of those deponents (to wit) Elizabeth Crall heard said dec^d about ten or eleven days before he died that he wished a negro woman named Daphna & his two children Mungo & Leed to be equally divided among said three children when the oldest of them came of age. It negro fellow named Chagole to work on the plantation for the support of the family generally including this deponent so long as she lived on the premises & Mary Crall the mother of the dec^d so long as she lived on wagon & give two worth the horse & a lot to be sold to pay his debts, and this deponent saith that what she has stated appears to be the wish of the dec^d to be his will and that she heard him say he wanted Reginald Lynch to be his Executor

May 7th 1810

Elizabeth Crall

And the other Champion & Shagles saith that about three days before his dec^d death deponent heard him say he wanted a will written and given as a reason that he wanted his mother supported during his life & at his death an equal division

May 7th 1810

C. J. Shagles

Mary Crall the widow of the dec^d saith that one negro girl named Lucy left to this deponent & that that it was the wish of the dec^d to dispose of his property in the manner already stated & further saith that he gave to his oldest child one bed & furniture & one cow to each child & to the deponent two beds & furniture on some horse
