Union County } In the name of God Amen. I James Colburn of the County and State aforesaid being of a sound and disposing mind and memory do make publish and declare, this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made. My soul I commit to the hands of him from whom I received it. My body I wish decently buried. And as to such property as it hath pleased a kind Providence to bestow upon me I dispose of in the following manner, viz,

First. I give & bequeath to my beloved wife Ann for and during her natural life two negroes, Lee and Ritta, the land on which I now live, the household and kitchen furniture, one horse and wagon, two cows & calves and twelve head of hogs. After the death of said named wife, the above mentioned property to be equally divided between my two daughters Patsy, & Charilla for their use and benefit during their natural life, and at their decease to be equally divided between their children.

2^d Whereas I have heretofore given to John Hatt the husband of my daughter Patsy fifty six acres of land worth three hundred dollars, one negro girl named Linda worth one hundred dollars, one mare and saddle worth sixty dollars, one bed bedstead & furniture worth thirty dollars, one Cow calf & sheep worth twenty dollars and one chest worth four dollars, and whereas I have given to my daughter Charilla one bed & bedstead worth twenty dollars, one Saddle worth fifteen dollars, one negro girl named Linda worth five hundred dollars & also a debt of two hundred dollars paid Dr. Head for Lyons the husband of said Charilla. It will wish and desire is that all of the remainder of my property real & personal which I may die possessed of shall at my decease after all my last debts have been paid, from property which can be shared) be equally divided between my said two daughters & Charilla (except to the extent of the property which I have heretofore given them which is named above) for their use & benefit during their natural lives, and at the decease of either of my said two daughters the property received from my estate shall be equally divided among each of their children.
